HUNTINGTON INDIANA HIGH SCHOOL

the 1948 Modulus

The 1948 Modulus, published by the students of Huntington High School at Huntington, Indiana, opens its pages to portray another year of school activities. We are attempting not only to present a record of the year's events, but also to give you a colorful, composite picture of the people and places that make up the ever-growing institution of H. H. S.

—The Editor.

Modulus

H. H. S. . . . the sum of all its parts . . . the entity . . . it is here
we find the bridge of education . . .
here is the future leader and citizen,
the official and executive, the governor and the governed . . . here we see the machine and the machinery in action,
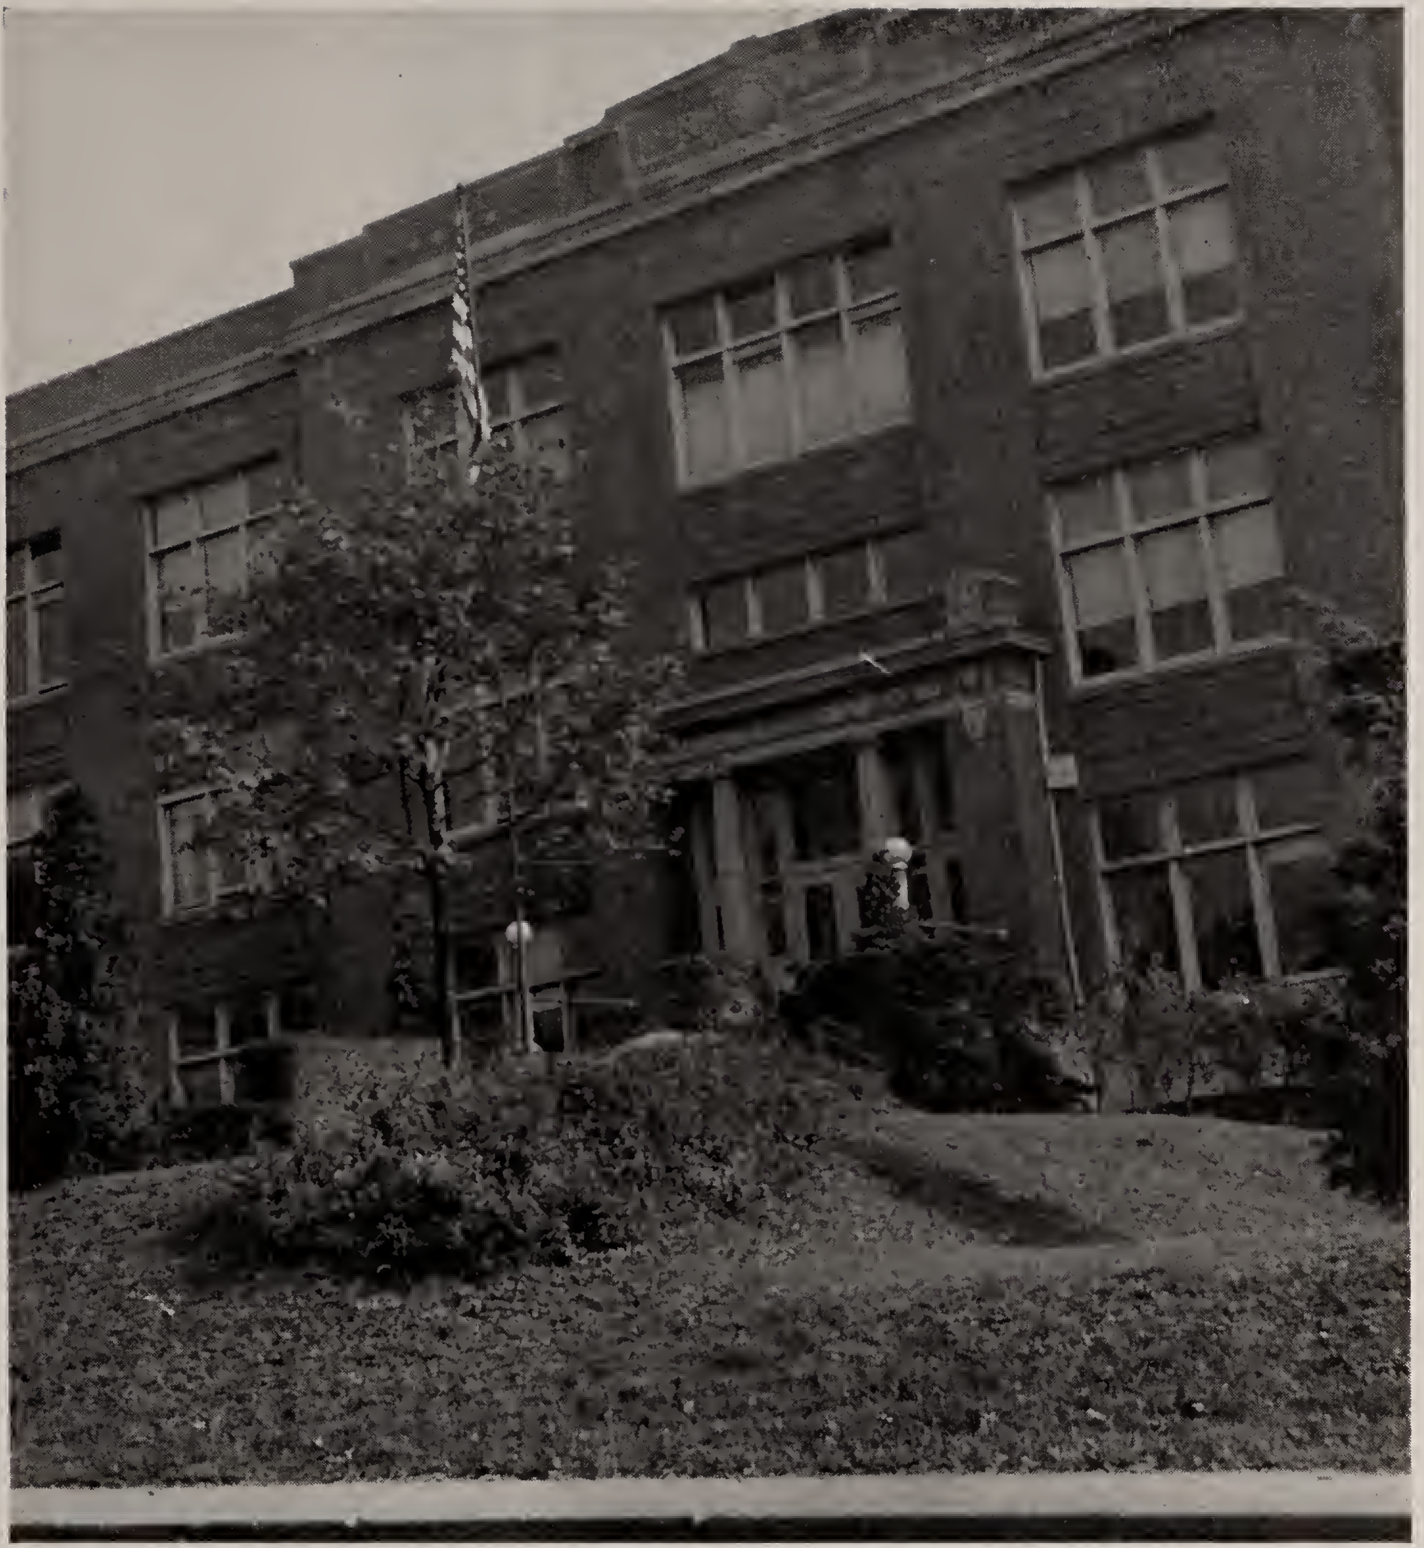
which, in short, is the institution.

School



School Scene

Through this hall many a H. H. S. student has walked. The familiarity of this very spot in second floor hall will never be forgotten.

Community Gym

This gym is well known for being one of the best in northern Indiana. With the additional bleachers and the reserved seats, everyone could see the games without a long wait in line.

New Candy Booth

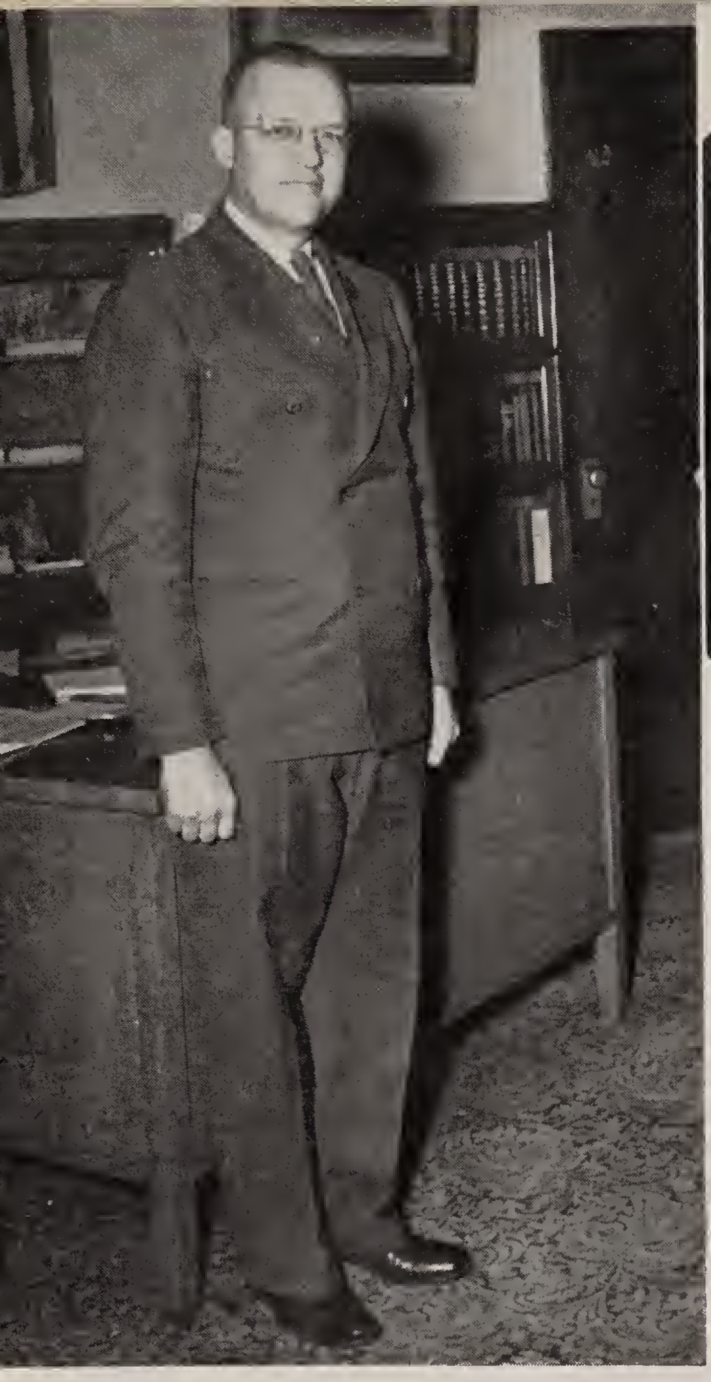
The class of "48", as juniors, applied some of its hard earned money on enlarging the candy booth at Kriegbaum Field. This picture proves that this year's junior class made good use of the bigger and better booth.

Kriegbaum Field

Every fall the population of Huntington is found at Kriegbaum Field. Next fall the fans will find the field equipped with newly purchased bleachers.

We seniors will surely miss this place next fall.

Administration



Mr. Burton A. Stephan
Superintendent of Schools

Superintendent

Miss Fredith Langley
Secretary to the
Superintendent

Few of us ever see Mr. Burton Stephan, his clerk, Miss Fredith Langley, and the School Board. They work behind the actual scenes of the schools. Their work is to see that the city schools run smoothly and that the high standards are upheld.

Before he became Superintendent, Mr. Stephan served as principal of Huntington High. Having graduated from Huntington High and played basketball on the first team of Vikings to go to the State Finals, we can realize how versatile our superintendent really is.

In spite of the fact that Mr. Stephan is a very busy man, we all know that he finds time to talk to us and visit our classes.

School Board

Mr. O. K. Zeigler
Mrs. Ruth Dunkin
Mr. Frank Helvie
Mr. Burton Stephan

Principal

Miss Betty Grossman
Secretary to the Principal

Mr. Harold S. Johnson

High School Principal

We all know and see Mr. Harold Johnson and Miss Betty Grossman every day. Although some of us may not realize it, we are being helped by the Guidance Department just as often.

Mr. Johnson's big task is the management of our school. He is not only a personal guide to every student, but also a teacher. Before he became principal, Mr. Johnson taught Social Studies in our school. Now, even though he is one of the busiest men in our school, he finds time to teach an American History class.

What? Did you say it was 1948! Not already! Why it seems that only yesterday we, shy and innocent, were trudging through the halls of good old H. H. S. And now!—Well, this class will indeed be remembered! For what will it be remembered? Let's see—its football team? basketball team? officers? sponsors? play? its gift to the school? Well, anyhow, I know one thing. This class will be remembered.

We began our year of activities with the election of four capable officers: Neil Markle, president; Bob Swihart, vice-president; Marianne McMillen, secretary; and Virginia Zahm, treasurer. Two grand sponsors, Mrs. Bernice Hillegas and Mr. Ed Burke, were always on hand to give advice.

On January 9, this group, which contains talented, ambitious individuals, chose the class motto, flower, and colors. The results were: motto, "'Tis the mind that makes the body rich;" flower, white rose; colors, red and grey.

Our gift to the school, an electric Hammond organ, was dedicated January 12. The music, provided by the organ, added new beauty to the Baccalaureate services held May 16.

Soon after the Christmas holidays, work was begun on the Senior play, a three-act comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." Days and nights of hard practice started, ending with a successful production. (At least, we think so!)

Another unforgettable occasion was held May 20. It was a glorious reception.

Now, we must say 'Farewell' to our dear Alma Mater and step out into the unknown.

Class Will

Having reluctantly served our term, and passing now from this world to others unknown, we, the class of 1948, bequeath what few human and inhuman traits we have acquired during our life in H. H. S. to those who, we feel, will do them justice, trusting that they will be accepted with gratitude and in good faith.

"Doc" Kern wills his motorcycle to Bill Ayres who will always have enough hot air to fill the tires.

Nita Jane Landrum and Joyce Mygrant left the attendance office with a sigh of relief.

Cathryn "Frightfully" Kellogg leaves full of "Pep" while Jezebel "Krumbles" with a last "Snap", "Crackle" and "Pop."

Bob Swihart wills a position on next year's football team to Phil Gardner.

Donna "Bones" Crawley wills her size 14 shoes to Harry Smith.

Jim "Hoosier Pete" Brown wills his expression "Baby" to Lee Lewton.

Melba Bailey wills her chance to accompany Bob Rowe to Gerry Sunday.

Charlotte Rose leaves her "piccolo" to Heinz "57".

Bill Newell bequeaths a dime to the City Water Department.

Jack Cofield wills his ability to fix worn-out contraptions to Mert Sours.

Carolyn "Red" Hosler leaves to break the "Jenks" (financially that is).

Dwight Pinkerton, L. D. Williams, and Ben Steward will their knowledge of Whizzers to Paul Decker.

Marianne Specker wills her yell leading ability to her brother.

Marilyn Lofland wills her "pitching arm" to the New York Yankees.

Howard "New Deal" Smith leaves for the Empire Card Room.

Bill Snyder gives his nickname "Topsy" back to his dog where it came from.

Carla "Hop-Along" Cassady leaves her name in lights with the Jefferson Theatre.

Bill Converse leaves his interpretation of "Muzzey" to "normal people."

Nick Lambros leaves "on the Wagon."

Barbara Bogear leaves her seat on the 11:15 "nickel vibrator" to her sister Mary.

Max Poling leaves the appreciation of Max Poling to his best friend, Max Poling.

Gwendolyn leaves her "Sult-ry" beauty to Janet Bailey.

Ned Slater wills a few Ft. Wayne addresses and a book entitled Twenty-five Ways of Getting to Ft. Wayne to Richard Collins.

Carolyn Beal wills her library job to Ralph Hubbart.

James Baughman wills his "bold character" to John Weyler.

Fred Jones bequeaths his wardrobe to Jack Schacht so Huntington won't be without a "cat".

Pat Richardson and Germaine Barnes combine their excess height and confer it to "Slim" Hendricks.

Jim Kreig wills his chewing gum to Miss Weiford.

Barbara Carr wills her candy selling ability to the Junior Class.

Marvin Altman leaves to walk Joe Power's "beaten path" to Andrews by way of the River Road.

Virginia Zahm leaves . . . . . She was a "Corky".

Mary Funderburg, Joretta Lind, and Robert Pollock leave in 3½ years. Couldn't they stand it any longer?

Phyllis Capehart came, saw the faculty, and left.

Mary Margaret Morris wills a portion of her red hair to Janet McKee.

Bettylee Weinley wills her sweet disposition to Gloria Humphrey.

Marjory James leaves to join Jesse.

Bill Jones leaves (?) Miss Ellis after a 3-year course in world history.

Joyce Fanning has already left for I. U. to take up a course in "Art" (Chapman, that is).

Keith Rouch wills his nickname "Little Rock" back to Arkansas.

Bob Beach after four years of contemplating a trip to his old stomping grounds, Miami Beach, goes home and meditates.

Jim Leake wills his rendition of "Mammy" to George Washington in the second floor hall who can't get away from it.

Kenny Bryan wills his ambition to Don Covey.

Paul Buzzard wills his forward position to Gene Wood.

Jack Jones leaves sideways so no one can see him.

Bill Florent leaves a vacant seat in the auditorium to a next year senior.

Donna Johnston and Joan Morrett leave their bows and arrows to cupid.

Helen Stauch leaves Bill Lauterbach to coach Hummer.

Janet Owens wills a portion of her hair to Delmar (non-alcoholic Charlie) Weesner—ah, Delmar's prayers are answered at last.

Jean Dougherty (coach Luther's star) leaves her biceps to Anne Bippus.

Barbara Haupert leaves her seat in the saxaphone section to Joyce Young.

Tom Brumleve leaves his respect for womanhood outside the door every morning.

Frank Miller leaves his civics book to some junior with this inscription: "In case of flood stand on this book; it's mighty dry."

With a "Click" of her heels, Lois leaves.

Ellen Mae Cotton wills the Methodist chimes to Ellen Priddy.

Virginia Kelsey, after four long years, leaves the library in the hands of Carolyn Weiford.

Patsy Medcalf leaves with a good record.

Jacqueline Haneline, Peggy Goodrich, and Bonnie Musselman leave with a smile.

Lucille Hunnicutt leaves with her last name, but not for long.

Ann Hall wills her quiet manner and few words to Pat Pontius.

"Digger" Hurdle wills his shovel to Betty Robbins to dig up a date of her own.

Dick Garretson leaves Jean Altman in the clutches of Jack Belote and Keith Biehl.

Darl "Stoneface" Caley leaves for Dick Tracy's Comic Strip.

Bonnie Bailey, Betty Emley, Jean Dinius, Vera Stroup, and Dorothy Stahl leave with a motorcycle escort.

Marilyn Wiggins leaves with lipstick on.

Martha Gingrich leaves her terrifying cackle to Maralee DuHadway.

Betty Jean Fulton wills her parking space to Hank Edwards.

Marianne McMillen wills the Sunshine Society to the next president.

Jerry Hensel wills his athletic ability to Al Shultz.

Sam Kaiser wills his French accent to Dick Wilson who spends most of his time in the Casba as it is.

Jack Overly leaves after four years of having a good time.

Lucille Runion leaves her typing ability to Barbara Alexander.

Carolyn Hudelson leaves with a diploma in one hand and a Bible in the other.

Neil C. Markle wills his ability to tell the Seils twins apart to Roger Carey.

Tom Karnes wills some old absentee lists to Mike Jioso.

Charlie Wilson leaves a list on one thousand ways to initiate a freshman to Joe Morrow.

Careful Carolyn Christ creeps cautiously 'cross the threshold and calls a casual goodbye.

Barbara and Mary Ellen leave the school with two "Frewer" people.

Wilma Douglas wills her love of Roy Rogers and Trigger to Jim Law.

Barbara Shenefield and Joan Young will their inseparability to Nancy Yarger and "Ritty" Gelzleichter.

Leslie leaves for the Woods.

Jim Rusler bequeaths a white dinner jacket and bow tie to the Paul Hoon Studio.

Bob Glenn wills himself to Jean Godwin.

John Paul bequeaths his book How to Win Friends and Influence Teachers to Jim Powers.

"Rat" Martin leaves with a mouthful of water looking for George Gressly.

Connie Coyle leaves the telephone lines from Huntington to Ft. Wayne to Rose Ann MacMurray, who can probably keep them warm too.

Sally Lowey wills her "come hither look" to "Darling" Caldwell.

Don Winn wills the book You Can Winn to next year's football team.

Belle Louise Kramer wills her shy attitude to Sue Ann Wright.

"Ripping" Clara Day Kettering wills her British accent to Carlos Huesca.

Bob Jay, Harold Kline, and Bill Tallman will their "Big Jobs" to the bottom of Big Blue for Bob Griffith to stub his toe on.

Ruth Becker wills her torchered tonsils to Joann Hendricks.

Wayne Eberly wills his stale jokes from last year's reception and this year's revue to Eiffel Plasterer, who has more than he knows what to do with.

Norm Cozad wills the Student Council to the Republicans.

Naomi wills her "Tubbs" to "Moon and Moon" so they can speed up production.

"Kitty" Whitacre and Jerry Waikel left their cookies in the oven.

Bob Rowe gives the revue back to the Modulus Staff and his tux back to his dad.

Phil Jackson wills his sideburns to Leroy Clements.

Bob Truitt, Dick Davis, and Stacy Haines leave the second floor bulletin board to next year's time killers.

Dean Endsley wills his correct bookkeeping answers back to Bruce's answer book.

Barbara Fredricks leaves—period.

Bill Raub leaves the Audio-Visual Department muttering, "There will never be a better operator."

Gene Poe wills his "hour-glass" figure to Keith Biehl.

Charlie Miltonberger departs arguing that the Andrew's city limits should be extended to include Huntington.

Pat Fling wills a bottle of peroxide to Joan Milton.

Carol Jackson leaves an over-due library card and report card to Miss Hannah.

Last as usual, Barbara Zeigler wills her back seat in all class rooms to some far-sighted junior.

With tired brains and broken backs, the class of 1948 departs from H. H. S. with a lugubrious sigh, leaving one Hammond organ to the school, one bill for same to the class of 1949, and the rest of the school to all future students. We take with us many pleasant memories of the days when "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

Prophecy

We, the Scyldings of H. H. S., while dipping our oars into the Sea of Wisdom, have finally come upon the theory that we are nothing but a lot of fish in a big, big sea.

We came upon this truth while gazing into the murky undercurrents of the human minds of the class of "48". Swept along by the same undercurrents, we have found ourselves at the bottom of the sea.

Leaning on a seaweed, we suddenly feel the vibrations of an explosion and looking up we see Dr. Kern returning from a quick trip to the moon. Orville, will you never learn that KNO_3 is an explosive?

Moving on we are drawn in fascination by the melodious strains of a seashell. Anyone could tell from the music that it is Melba Bailey practicing for her evening concert in Ann's Hall.

Traveling through the business district of Neptunia, we can see several conspicuous stop lights in the forms of Joan Young, Naomi Tubbs, Mary Margaret Morris, Carolyn Hosler, Frank Miller, Jack Cofield, and Carla Cassaday. The most outstanding is Marianne McMillen as she reflects the rays of the under sea Sunshine Society.

On down is Nick Lambros' Greasy Oyster Shell, where the best food in town is served (?) by Lucille Runion and Barbara Shenefield and where the noisiest people congregate, such as Carolyn Beal, Carolyn Christ, Jean Dinius, Dean Endsley, and Bill Florent.

Conveniently located is Dr. Betty Fulton's office where, ably assisted by nurses Betty Lee Weinley, Martha Gingrich, and Barbara Haupert, she administers antidotes for ill effects acquired at Nick's.

That odor! Stop, where have I smelled that before? Was it at the Booster Club initiation? I know, Bob Glenn and his L. O. (limburger odor).

He directed us to the new Swim-Inn Theater where the production of Bill Converse's "Blue Points on a Half Shell" is being staged. Kicking up their fins in a mermaid dance are Tom Brumleve, Paul Buzzard, Bob Swihart, Darl Caley, Norm Cozad, Ned Martin, and Bob Truitt.

That noise, that ear splitting noise! What is it? It's just across the wave where Marvin Altman and Bonnie Bailey are painting the sign that says:

Drummer's Inc.

Bob Rowe: Director

Stock Holders:

Bob Beach

Neil Markle

Bill Hurdle

Bill Snyder

Their occupation is making explosives because they like loud noises.

Journeying to the residential district we can hear Joretta Lind and Barbara Carr bubbling with gossip over their back coral fences about Patty's latest Fling and William's New-well.

Extra! Extra! Here comes Don Winn on his paper route. He's selling the "Under Water Press." What's this! An ad about the "New Look" in scales created by Connie Coyle. She's doing right well. She has used Patsy Medcalf and Skippy Sult for her models. Who's editing this paper? Why it is Sally Lowey. She's become a career girl instead of marrying Stacy Haines. Her address is here also—Heavens, it's right next to Clara Day Kettering. I'll bet they don't gossip over the back fence.

Here's a full page ad for Cathryn Kellogg's "Soggies".

On the Sport's Page it announces a swim meet tonight between the Sunfish—Jean Dougherty, Donna Crawley, Donna Johnston and Joan Morrett, and the Crappies—Jerry Hensel, Ned Slater, Bill Jones, and Jack Jones.

Germaine Barnes, versatile society editor, really got a scoop on the Virginia Kelsey and Bob Pollock wedding performed by Dr. Wayne Eberly. Joyce Fanning and Phyllis Capehart were named two of the best dressed women in Neptunia.

The City Council headed by Ruth Becker and members Ellen Cotton, Mary Funderburg, Charlotte Rose, Helen Stauch, and Marilyn Wiggins is petitioning to convert Neptunia into a dry city which is, of course, absurd.

Betty Emley, Carol Jackson, Belle Louise Kramer, Bonnie Musselman, and Vera Stroup swooned recently when Max Poling and Ben Steward leaped off their underwater motor bikes only to be presented with tickets for speeding by Kenny Bryan, who finally caught up with them.

Looking up from our paper, we happen to notice a sign advertising Brown's Seahorse Exchange. Jim is working on Barbara and Mary Ellen Frewer's twin horses. You know, it must be precision work in likeness.

Jim Leak and friends, John Paul, Jack Overly, Leslie Wood and Phil Jackson are leaving for a day's daring adventure to the surface. They travel at two knots an hour on the horses they get from Charlie Miltonberger's inflation factory. It hits there too! He has some of the windiest people for employees, namely: Wilma Douglas, Lois Click, Carolyn Hudelson, Lucille Hunnicutt, and Marjory James.

Charlie Wilson's barber shop is a place where any time of day the best warblers in Neptunia can be found. The regular customers are Jim Krieg, Dick Davis, L. D. Williams, Gene Poe, Jim Rusler, and Jim Baughman accompanied by Dick Garretson on his strident bubble blower.

We see standing in line, Barbara Bogear, Barbara Fredericks, Peggy Goodrich, Jacky Haneline, Harold Kline, and Bob Jay, to see the original puppet show created by Barbara Zeigler, with Sam Kaiser as her star puppet and Virginia Zahm as narrator.

Deciding to see the opening, we enter and Tom Karnes ushers us to our seats. As a special feature, Marilyn Lofland sings "Golden Earrings" which reminds us of Nita Jane Landrum and her buddy Joyce Mygrant. In the middle of the show we see Marianne Specker, Dorothy Stahl, Jerry Waikel, and Bill Tallman coming in late. At intermission Jim Whitacre and Fred Jones step out into the alley to finish their dispute.

Do you realize that this show could not be broadcast throughout the town of Neptunia without the intricate radio system devised by Bill Raub with the assistance of Dwight Pinkerton, Howard Smith, and Keith Rouch?

After walking out of the show and waving goodbye to Pat Richardson and Janet Owens, we begin to realize that the depth of Neptunia is getting beyond our reach and probably yours too, so we decide that we had better take the last current to the surface. We hope that it hasn't been too dry for you and we wish to inform you that "what is in this manuscript is purely your imagination, not ours."

The three fishies and the brother fishy, too:

Back Row: Helen Stauch (prompter), Jack Cofield, Leslie Wood, Bob Rowe, Wayne Eberly, Nick Lambros, Neil Markle, Sam Kaiser, Barbara Haupert (prompter).

Our Hearts Were Young and Gay

Memories, that's all it is now. But what memories—of gayety; of studying parts until wee hours of the morning; and of the times practices didn't go off so well and everyone was rather downhearted and actually "poohed" out; and then the sunny side of the matter, when everyone was really "in the mood" and the practices were near perfect.

Now to get on with the plot of the play. Cornelia Otis Skinner, namely Connie Coyle, and Emily Kimbrough, Virginia Zahm, in a frenzy of excitement as they prepare to set sail to Paris, are given last minute instructions and warnings by Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, Wayne Eberly and Sally Lowey. They even go so far as to humiliate Cornelia in front of the Steward, Max Poling, who is kept busy bringing in trunks of the girls' clothes. On the journey, adventure runs wild. They capture a stowaway; mistake the leader of the ship's band, who is actually Jack Cofield, for the Admiral; have the charming acquaintance of two frightfully, ripping English girls, Winifred Blaugh, Cathryn Kellogg and Harriet St. John, Clara Day Kettering; and meet two young handsome American medical students, Leo McEvoy, Neil Markle, and Dick Winters, Bob Rowe. Incidentally, these fellows are the ingredients necessary for the romance.

Ah! by the way, the girls' mothers had provided them with safety pockets to safeguard them against bandits and brigands. The girls thinking this a lot of nonsense, try in every way possible to rid themselves of this "unnecessary luggage", but to no avail, they are always returned.

As they near their destination, Cornelia makes matters a little worse by encouraging a measle germ, but thanks to Emily, they pass the medical inspection, which is given by the bewildered inspector, Ruth Becker.

While in Paris, the girls' stay in the hotel owned by Madame Elise, Gwendolyn Sult, and are given service by Therese, Janet Owens. While in Paris they get involved with a gas meter that explodes, sleep in a bed Cardinal Richelieu slept in—once, are awakened by an energetic window cleaner, who, honest-to-goodness is Nick Lambros, and they try to convince a great French actor, Monsieur de la Croix, who is actually Sam Kaiser, to give Cornelia acting lessons. Too soon the time comes to leave, but the boys come to see the girls off so it isn't too sad.

Why am I telling you all this? If you saw the play, you already know what happened. Of course, all of us who saw the play really enjoyed it and we seniors feel assured that this was the best.

Memories! You bet, and not a one we'll ever want to forget. Of course, it took work, but for the pleasure we got out of it, it was well worth it.

Of course, the ones who took character (?) roles in the play weren't the only ones responsible for this accomplishment. It just couldn't have been done without the time and effort of Mrs. Hillegas and Mrs. Patterson.

Whether it's a wicker basket of potato chips, a basketball, or a solid Geometry book—we carry the load. When we were freshmen we put up with the domineering upper classmen and suffered many "trials and tribs." When we were sophomores the upper classmen didn't seem quite so far above us but we still had to be tolerated by them. However, when we reached our junior year, we were wholly accepted and expected to be entirely active in all affairs.

Yes, the class of "49" has its leaders and its followers. Genius is our exception rather than our rule.

Miss Wilson (whether you'd rather meet her behind a hot dog machine than in Room 207 is irrelevant) and Mrs. Patterson (amo amas amat is her sideline) were our hard working sponsors.

Bob Carey was our president; Pat Rusk, our vice-president; Jerry Hiers, our secretary, and Barbara Alexander our treasurer.

Yes, here we are, our names and our pictures—look us over.

All year H. H. S. has looked with respect and admiration at the select body of men who wore the blue cords and at those talented and lively girls of the sophomore class. The class of 1950 has chalked up an outstanding record in high grades and leadership. As one teacher put it, "Every member of that Sophomore class is a leader."

For our officers, out of the 122 sophomores, we picked the two "stars", Alfred Shultz and Ernie Passwater, to be president and vice-president, Barbara Winkler was elected secretary, and Anne Stephen, treasurer. Lowell Buzzard was re-elected class sponsor.

The Freshmen this year underwent the traditional trials of their rank. Naturally the boys were introduced to the fountain, hung on lockers, thrown in bushes and other things too horrible to mention.

Green Day for the girls brought out devils, soldiers, and story book characters. The only thing which kept us from jumping down the elevator shaft and ending it all was the spirit of the teachers and Sunshine Big Sisters who assured us we were safe.

Our class did something no other class has ever done. We promoted good will between Mexico and the United States by electing as our class president a boy from Mexico. Our class officers and sponsors are: president, Carlos Huesca; vice-president, Dick Glenn; secretary, Jim Bonifas; treasurer, John Cozad, and sponsor, Miss Geraldine Zahn.

Modulus Staff

Every year the Modulus staff is more determined to turn out a better book and it is no exception this year. Not only do we have a better book but we had a better revue. Congratulations should go to Mr. Leslie Wilbern, advisor of the Modulus, and to Sally Lowey, the editor. They have worked untiringly on this book and hope you like it.

The revue, "The Shining Hour," was presented on December 8, 9, and 10. The success was largely due to the hard work of Ruth Becker and Bob Rowe, the revue managers, and it never could have been given without the unceasing effort of Mr. Wilbern. Thanks to all of you. It was a wonderful show.

Miss 1948 Modulus

CAROLYN BRIGGS

From the time she entered high school about three years ago, a certain girl wished that some day she could compete for the title of Miss Modulus. On December 8, as she walked nervously down the aisle with her escort, Nick Lambros, she realized that on this very night, her wish had become a reality. All the long way to the stage of the auditorium, she was anxiously hoping that she would be the lucky nominee. After much stalling the Master of Ceremonies, Wayne Eberly, finally announced that the winner of the title of Miss Modulus was Carolyn Briggs. The wish which had come true now had a perfect ending. She was so thrilled, as any girl should be, as she received a dainty, gold identification bracelet. For her hard work, she was awarded not only the title of Miss Modulus, but also this big two page spread which includes a large picture and space for several smaller ones. In the pictures on the next page, we see Carolyn seated on the davenport with her two sisters Susie and Charlotte; selling candy with Lona Belle Rice; with her escort, Nick Lambros; the four nominees for Miss Modulus and their escorts; talking with Sam Kaiser under the supervision of Honest Abe; reading, cooking; with the gang; and playing the piano.

Band

Here's one organization we could hardly do without. Yes, our band. This year our band performed at the football field and entered the marching contest at Ft. Wayne. They also played such hot numbers as: "Near You", "Rocking in a Plastic Chair", "Band Jive", and many others. I think we often take the attitude that the band will always be at the games and we do not realize or appreciate all the hard work it takes to make this band the wonderful organization it is.

Our Director

We do not realize how lucky we are to have Mr. Delmar Weesner directing our band. He is known throughout the state for his excellent talent and ability.

Each year he enters our band in the District Band Contest and usually wins a First Division rating.

Years may come, years may go; but we can always be sure that Mr. Weesner will give us a good band.

Drum Major and Majorettes

This year Bob Rowe again led our band as Drum Major. Since this was his last year, Bob broke in an assistant to take his place next year. Max Truby shows great promise of being an able Drum Major.

The four Drum Majorettes were: Sue Ebert, Donna Johnston, Yvonne Detwiler, and Joan Morrett.

Melba Bailey, Accompanist

Choir

The choir, under the direction of Cloyde Slater, who is well liked and held high in the estimation of his students, has done a wonderful job this year. No doubt you have, at one time or another, come into the auditorium the sixth period and heard them practicing a certain phrase until it is as near perfection as could be.

The choir gave a concert during the Christmas season which was very beautiful and inspiring to all who were present. The profit from this concert helped to buy new robes, for, since the first semester, there have been more Choristers than robes. Also, more new music is being added to the library.

The composed way the choir has presented their programs shows that a great deal of time is spent by the members and Mr. Slater in making the "better best."

The new organ, the gift from the seniors, will be an added attraction for future concerts.

Sunshine Society

The Sunshine Society is a club in which every girl in H. H. S. is a member. It began thirty-five years ago. This is a long time and helps explain why the "Sunshine Society" is a wonderful organization. Other reasons might be explained in their creed, which is "With love in my heart, forgetting self, and with charity for all, I will make the object of my life helpfulness and kindness to others. I shall try to fit myself to give intelligent service in making my community a safer and more beautiful place in which to live. Thus will my own life become rich and complete." Their motto is "Others." The annual Easter Sunrise Service has become a community tradition. Each year the society contributes to the fund for crippled children at Riley Hospital. The officers for this year were: President, Marianne McMillen; Vice President, Barbara Alexander; Treasurer, Ruth Becker; Recording Secretary, Carolyn Weiford; Corresponding Secretary, Carolyn Knoll.

S. S. S.

The members of the S. S. S., Social Service Sunbeams, are particularly interested in making the less fortunate, as well as the fortunate, a little happier by cheery, thoughtful deeds such as sending a Mrs. Miniver rose to any member of the Sunshine Society or faculty in case of illness or a very special occasion. They also deliver baskets of food during Christmas, Easter, and Thanksgiving to families who sincerely appreciate and are thankful for the thoughtfulness of this organization of Sunshine Girls.

Responsible for the organizing of these various activities are Peggy Goodrich, Chairman, and Miss Emma Kline, Sponsor.

SOCIAL SERVICE SUNBEAMS

Craft Guild

This is an industrious group of the Sunshine Society. Their meetings, called by Anne Stephan, the chairman, are held twice a month either at the home of Miss Zahn, their sponsor, immediately after school, or at one of the girls' homes in the evening.

These girls do not just come to a meeting to talk about the latest news, but they also knit, embroider, weave, or sew. This gives each girl a chance to pursue her type of outside interest.

CRAFT GUILD

Needlework Guild

The Sunshine Needlework Guild committee has been affiliated with the national Needlework Guild for the past fifteen years and is the only high school group which contributes to this organization. This year the committee, with Margaret Spath as chairman and Miss Alice Kline sponsor, made twelve dresses which were given to the local organization and distributed to school children of the city who needed them.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD

Gales

The Sunshine Gales make clever bonnets for Easter eggs, the proceeds of which are contributed to the Riley Fund for children at the Riley Hospital at Indianapolis.

This group was originally organized to sponsor special breakfasts, but this custom has been discontinued lately because of the increase in cost. For this reason, the Gales have had only one project this year; decorating and selling the Easter eggs.

The sponsor of this group is Miss Hazel Cage, and the chairman is Barbara Alexander.

Mary White Guild

The purpose of the Mary White Guild is to spread sunshine and cheer throughout the school. In the spring, they give a May basket to each member of the faculty and to patients at the hospital.

This committee also sponsors the inspiring religious services which are held during Holy Week.

The sponsor is Mrs. Marie Porter, assisted by Miss Florence Weiford; chairman, Thalia Huston.

Big and Little Sisters

At the beginning of each semester, each incoming freshman is given help in finding her classroom, her locker, and is given instructions for Green Day by a big sister, who is a member of the Big and Little Sister Committee.

Green Day was brought to a grand climax by a tea, which was held in room 109, for both the big and little sisters. The formal initiation of these freshman girls into the Sunshine Society was a very impressive, candlelight ceremony held in the auditorium, and a pretty tea followed in Miss Kline's room for the initiates, their mothers, their "Big Sisters", and the faculty. All these girls are striving to live up to their motto, "Others", in their own simple way.

The sponsor of this committee is Miss Alice Kline who was assisted by Chairman, Martha Gingrich, and Assistant Chairman, Janet Owens.

MONEY MAKING SOCIETY

M. M. S.

The M. M. S. directs its efforts into moneymaking channels and thus becomes the sponsor of social activities. These activities are the Sweetheart Dance, which was held on February 21, the music being furnished by Jimmy Warren's Orchestra, and Peanut Week held the second week in April. During Peanut Week each girl has a secret pal who pleasantly surprises her secret sister by giving her small gifts and notes. At the end of the week, the names are revealed. This is one way to make new acquaintances and friendships. Miss Mary Sees, after a year of absence, again assumed the sponsorship of this committee. Sally Lowey was Chairman.

Front Row: Wayne Eberly, Jack Cofield, John Paul.

Second Row: Dorlis Brown, Barbara Tower, Ellen Priddy, Glenna Fahrnow, Dolores Feltman, Dorothy Kauff, Barbara Alexander, Carolyn Hudelson.

Third Row: Mrs. Beatrice Patterson, Sally Lowey, Thalia Huston, Jeanne Young, Cathryn Kellogg, Barbara Zeigler, Ruth Becker, Carolyn Seng, Helen Stauch.

Senior Masque and Gavel

The Senior Masque and Gavel, which holds the reputation of being one of the busiest organizations in H. H. S., hasn't allowed that reputation to depreciate this year. They have given several programs for various churches, schools, and Huntington College, not counting the enjoyable programs they have put on in our auditorium. In December they gave three religious programs, and we can't overlook the announcements and skits we have heard over the sound system.

They attended the Purdue Conference, and with the Public Speaking class, toured the WOWO station in Fort Wayne. On December 29, the annual alumni banquet was held at the Y. M. C. A.

Many members took part in our Revue, and Ruth Becker and Jack Cofield well represented our high school on Junior Town Meeting.

One explanation for the fine achievements of this club is the supervision and interest of Mrs. Beatrice Patterson, its sponsor.

The officers for the year were: President, Jack Cofield; Vice-President, Wayne Eberly; and Secretary, Sally Lowey.

Front Row: Lenore Bloom, Patti O'Donnell, Barbara Winkler, Bonnie Swearer, Marjorie Raver, Marilyn Fredericks.

Second Row: Lou Ann Bowers, Jacqueline Pfeifer, Jane Weyler, Jean Altman, Gerry Sunday, Carolyn Knoll, Lou Ann Parker, Colleen Kreisher.

Third Row: Janet Bailey, Barbara Rohm, Barbara Webber, Rosanna Ross, Patty Patton, Carol Humbert, Susie Richardson, Jane Burris, Joann Hendricks, Gloria Humphrey, Shirley Earhart.

Junior Masque and Gavel

To prepare for membership in Senior Masque and Gavel, the freshmen and sophomores have a club of their own, its purpose is to be an introduction to general speech work. In their meetings they have discussions and give speeches.

This group also participated in the Revue and assisted the Senior Masque and Gavel at the Annual Alumni Banquet.

The success of the members of Senior Masque and Gavel is due to the excellent training in Junior Masque and Gavel.

The officers were President, Colleen Kreisher; Vice-President, Barbara Winkler; Secretary, Jean Altman.

As Sponsor Mrs. Patterson does an equally excellent job with the Junior Masque and Gavel as she does with the Senior group.

First Row: Bill Hurdle, Sam Kaiser, Charles Miltonberger, Ncil Markle, Bill Raub, Jim Brown, Dick Garretson.
Second Row: Bob Glenn, Bob Beach, Harold Kline, Bill Tallman, L. D. Williams, Dick Gelzleichter, Charlie Wilson, Fred Jones.
Third Row: Paul Decker, Joe Morrow, Bill Snyder, Dick Mauger, Dean Endsley, Burdell Sell, Jim Law, Bob Rowe, Allen Young.
Fourth Row: Mr. Bruce Gerdes, James Baughman, Dick Walters, Bill Florent, Bob Carey, Leslie Wood, Jack Morris.
Fifth Row: Jack Knote, Meredith Souers, Tom Karns, Jerry Hicrs, Bill Lauterbach, Orville Kern.

Senior Hi Y

The Senior Hi-Y, which was organized in 1920, has become a thriving club, in which they strive to "create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

This year they have not followed any definite topic in choosing their speakers, but they have had as their guests such interesting personalities as Miss Zahn, Dr. Chiu, and Kenneth Hummer. They have also co-operated in several joint meetings with the other Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y Clubs. Two of these meetings were on "Going Steady", and "Family Relationship."

In addition to trying to live up to their motto, these boys aim to live by the "Four C's" which are clean speech, clean habits, clean sports, and clean scholarship. The success of this club, in the past year, is due to the effort of the officers, President, Neil Markle; Vice-President, Bill Raub; Secretary, Charles Miltonberger; Treasurer, Jim Brown; Chaplain, Sam Kaiser, and their "ever ready" sponsor, Mr. Bruce Gerdes.

Junior Hi Y

The members of this organization are boys who are freshmen and sophomores in high school. The purpose of the Junior Hi-Y is the same as that of the Senior Hi-Y and the Junior and Senior Tri Hi-Y clubs.

The meetings have been well attended and the boys have been present and participated in several joint meetings with the Senior Hi-Y and both the Junior and Senior Tri Hi-Y. Several members attended the district meeting at Ft. Wayne and all the leaders attended the meeting at Indianapolis.

The membership of this group has increased this year, which indicates that more boys are becoming interested in the high ideals of the organization.

The officers for this year were: President, Dick Mann; Vice-President, Bill Ayres; Secretary-Treasurer, Roger Carey; Program Chairman, Maurice Brown. The person who has done such a good job sponsoring these fellows this year was Mr. Slater.

Front Row: Ned Spath, Jimmie Pinney, Robert Kaylor, Roger Carey, Dick Mann, William Ayres, Morris Brown, Tom Kaiser, Mr. Bruce Gerdes.
Second Row: Allen Tabor, Don Sult, Dick Glenn, Robert Lee, Tom Casper, Bill Philips, Tom Wirt, Douglas Poe, Larry Cossairt.
Back Row: Jim Bonifas, Bob Bond, Roland Bogear, John Cozad, Gene Votaw, Bobbie Stevens, Paul Krieg, Hal Lesh, Ernie Passwater.

Senior Tri Hi Y

Senior Tri Hi-Y, including junior and senior girls, is the sister organization to the Senior Hi-Y and has about the same purpose.

We started the year with a hay ride in the fall, and during the Thanksgiving vacation, we joined the Junior Tri Hi-Y to sponsor the Anniversary Dance. Other activities were joint meetings with the Hi-Y and a Father and Daughter Banquet.

The meaning of Tri Hi-Y is:

Tri—the threefold purpose of the Y. M. C. A. This purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character.

Hi—exemplified by high school girls.

Y—affiliated with the "Y".

Their slogan is "Pure thoughts, pure words, pure actions." Officers for this year were: President, Donna Crawley; Vice-President, Patsy Medcalf; Secretary, Virginia Zahm; Treasurer, Ellen Mae Cotton; and Chaplain, Bettylee Weinley.

First Row: Patt Hoover, Joan Minton, Bettylee Weinley, Carolyn Briggs, Marilyn Lofland, Betty McCoy, Pat Richardson.
Second Row: Jean Leatherman, Betty Robbins, Roseann MacMurry, Dorothy Kauff, Pat Fling, Barbara Alexander, Jean Godwin, Sally Lowey.
Third Row: Marjory James, Virginia Thornton, Barbara Haupert, Virginia Zahm, Barbara Zeigler, Joan Morett, Patsy Medcalf, Jacqueline Haneline, Jean McClosky, Donna Johnston, Carolyn Christ.
Fourth Row: Carolyn Weiford, Thalia Huston, Cathryn Kellogg, Charlotte Rose, Carolyn Hudelson, Donna Crawley, Bonnie Musselman, Nancy Yarger, Jeanne Young, Millie Rose Wright, Ellen Cotton.

Junior Tri Hi Y

The purpose and slogan of the Junior Tri Hi-Y is the same as the Senior Tri Hi-Y. The only difference between the organizations is that the members are freshmen and sophomores.

The club has had an eventful year. They joined the Senior Tri Hi-Y to sponsor the Anniversary Dance which was held near Thanksgiving. A few of their other activities were a hayride and a box social. The membership has increased very much in the past year.

The officers are: President, Sue Wright; Vice-President, Jane Weyler; Secretary, Suzanne Casey; Treasurer, Shirley Earhart; Sergeant-at-arms, Colleen Kreisher; Chaplain, Carol Whitted. The sponsor is Mrs. Ted Heiney.

Back Row: Romaine Schall, Carol Humbert, Susan Richardson, Ann Bowers, Patty Patton, Patty Meese, Jean Boyle, Cindy Coyle, Darlene Caldwell, Rosanna Ross, Carol Pfeifer, Bonnie Reed, Phyllis Lewis, Elizabeth Webster, Myra Rouch, Joyce Young.
Second Row: Joann Hendricks, Doyleen Cass, Barbara Rohm, Carolyn Herzog, Barbara Weber, Jackie Pfeifer, Lois Haupert, Alma Magner, Betty Schultz, Cora Larkey, Donna Bryant.
Third Row: Coleen Kreisher, Marilyn Fredericks, Carolyn Knoll, Jackie Lewis, Sue Ebert, Diana Shraeder, Carol Whitted, Janet Bailey, Jane Burris, Janet Greider, Lou Ann Bowers, Pat Pontious, Susie Casey, Shirley Earhart.
Fourth Row: Sally Kreger, Marjory Raver, Barbara Winkler, Joann Vickery, Jane Weyler, Jean Altman, Gerry Sunday, LouAnn Parker, Carlene Martin, Carol Smith, Bonnie Young.

Student Council

The student council, composed of two members from each home room, plays an important part in Huntington High by supervising the conduct in the halls between classes. They are the ones who are always leaving classes a little early so they can be at their posts on time, even so, they do a good job of keeping order in our halls. The advisor for this group is our principal, Mr. Johnson. The officers for this year were President, Norman Cozad; Vice-President, Alfred Shultz; Secretary-Treasurer, Marianne McMillen.

Front Row: Roger Carey, Betty Lee Weinley, Shirley Earhart, Carol Whitted, Jackie Lewis, Barbara Webber, Barbara Winkler.
Second Row: Hobart Munger, Dolores Feltman, Ellen Priddy, Martha Gingrich, Patsy Medcalf, Peggy Welker, Rosanna Ross, Carolyn Knoll, Janet Greider.
Third Row: Bob Bond, Eddie Haines, Donna Crawley, Barbara Herzog, Cindy Coyle, Marianne McMillen, Carolyn Beal, Helen Stauch, Jean Bippus.
Back Row: Dick Collins, Wayne Marchand, Gene Vardaman, Bob Krider, Alfred Schultz, Bob Kaylor, Dick Hendricks, Norman Cozad, Charlie Wilson, Mr. Harold Johnson.

Booster Club

The purpose of this club is to boost the teams of all the high school sports.

At the first meeting of the year, Charles Miltonberger was elected president; Bill Raub, vice-president; Ruth Becker, secretary-treasurer.

In October a hamburger-fry was held at Salamonie State Forest Park near Lagro. Mr. Bruce Gerdes, our swell sponsor, and his wife demonstrated their skill by frying simply scrumptious hamburgs.

First Row Sam Kaiser, Bill Hurdle, Charlie Wilson, Dick Davis, Neil Markle, Bill Raub, Dick Gelzleichter, Jim Brown, John Paul, Dick Walters.
Second Row: Bob Beach, Bill Snyder, Bob Glenn, Dick Garretson, Bob Rowe, Jack Morris, Max Truby, Jean McCloskey, Patt Hoover, Margaret Spath.
Third Row: Charles Miltonberger, Virginia Zahm, Connie Coyle, Jean Leatherman, Barbara Tower, Emilie Burke, Dolores Feltman, Glenna Fahrnow, Pat Richardson.

Fifth Row: Mr. Bruce Gerdes, Jim Helvie, Gwendolyn Sult, Millie Rose Wright, Sally Lowey, Barbara Alexander, Joan Minton, Caroline Seng, Joan Morrett, Clara Day Kettering, Donna Johnson, June Young, Annabelle Lee, Lois Hart.
Back Row: Joe Morrow, Barbara Carr, Donna Crawley, Carolyn Hudelson, Mary Mulligan, Donna Prater, Carolyn Christ.

Biology Club

This club, which has its interests centered upon the origin, life, and history of plants and animals, is sponsored by Mr. Glen Hummer and Mr. Dale Ware.

The officers for the year were: President, Marjory James; Vice-President, Ellen Cotton; Secretary, Lona Belle Rice; Treasurer, Dorlis Brown.

Front Row: Virginia Zahm, Jean Altman, Ellen Priddy, Patsy Rusk, Dorlis Brown, Marjory James, Barbara Tower.
Second Row: Patt Hoover, Caroline Seng, Jacqueline Shipley, Maralee DuHadway, Dolores Feltman, Lona Belle Rice, Glenna Fahrnow.
Back Row: Mr. Glen Hummer, James Leak, Ronald Sundberg, Mr. Dale Ware.

Actuarie

The members of the Actuariae Club are students who have worked in our school library for one or more semesters.

The purpose of this club is to organize the student library assistants, to assist in fulfilling plans for beautifying the library and to render an appreciated service to all students and teachers of H. H. S. This year they sponsored Book Week and gave books to the Stuart Robinson School, Blacky, Kentucky, and had charge of ordering and distributing pocket books for the Teen-Age Book Club, known to members as the T. A. B.

The officers for the year were: President, Cathryn Kellogg; Vice-President, Nita Jane Landrum; Treasurer, Carolyn Beal; Secretary, Janet McKee.

They are efficiently sponsored by Miss June Hannah.

Roseann MacMurray, Dolores Feltman, Patt Hoover, Phyllis Lewis, Janet McKee, Miss June Hannah, Jean Leatherman, Catheryn Kellogg, Carolyn Hudelson, Mary Mulligan, Marjory James, Mary Funderburg.

Junior Rotary

Each month of the school year, the Huntington Rotary Club chooses a high school senior boy to be a Rotary member for the month. The high school boys are chosen not only for their scholastic ability alone, but also for their civic interests, dependability, personality, and manners.

The boy who is chosen meets with the Rotary Club each Tuesday noon at the Hotel LaFontaine where he lunches with the members, enjoys the programs, and learns the fact that service to the community ranks above all.

Back Row: Jack Cofield, Bob Rowe, Mr. Lester Gordon, Darl Caley, Jerry Hensel, Neil Markle.

F. T. A.

The "Huntington High School Future Teachers of America Club", commonly known as the F. T. A., is the youngest organization in high school. The club's purpose is to acquaint its members with the fine points of the teaching profession.

For the officers the club chose President Wayne Eberly, Vice-President Charlotte Rose, Secretary Sally Lowey, and Treasurer Jim Kocher, Mr. Lester Gordon, the club's advisor. Meetings were held twice a month and included guest speakers and discussions.

Front Row: Germaine Barnes, Barbara Zeigler, Dorlis Brown, Lenore Bloom.
Second Row: Jeanette Smith, Janet Owens, Charlotte Rose, Sally Lowey, Ellen Cotton, Nancy Yarger.
Back Row: Wayne Eberly, Nick Lambros, Jim Leak, Mr. Lester Gordon, Leslie Wood, James Kocher.

Auditoriums

We have had a variety of programs in our newly decorated auditorium in the past year. The Sunshine Society presented a beautiful Thanksgiving program on November 26. Miss Bernice Clifton, with her seeing eye dog, was here on December 16 and in a very charming manner told us the value of this dog to her in her handicap. To put us in the Yuletide spirit on December 19, the Senior Masque and Gavel presented a story, "Home for Christmas", which was read in parts. During Holy Week, March 22, 23, 24 and 25, very impressive services were given, sponsored by the Sunshine Society and Hi-Y Clubs.

In addition to these, we had several special programs which were paid for by our auditorium fees.

The first guest on October 3, was Emanuel Mansefield, a talented Negro tenor, who pleased us with his splendid selections.

A chalk artist, Garnet Hazard, was the next to amaze us. He was here on October 28. With many deft strokes of the chalk by the hand, he made pictures of beauty.

On December 8, Simeon "Nutchuk" Oliver, an Eskimo from the Smoky Sea, told us about his life, daring experiences in the northern seas, developments in Alaska, exciting folk tales, and concluded by playing on the piano and singing some folk songs descriptive of the Eskimos.

Succeeding "Nutchuk" to our auditorium on February 2 was Mr. Norman Coates Webster. His subject was poetry and we soon realized that we actually use poetry every day of our lives. He recited poetry which changed our mood from sad to glad and back again. Everyone enjoyed this program.

To give us pointers on "Poise and Personality", Dr. F. Arnold Young, an author and lecturer, returned to H. H. S. on March 31. In a very interesting way, he impressed on our minds the highlights of his topic.

The last, but not the least program, which was presented on May 4, was entirely fascinating. This was an exhibition of the Art of Bohemian Glass Blowing by the International Glass Blowers, the Howells.

I think we will all agree that our small fee was well spent.

Swing Inn

What would we do without our Swing Inn? And what would the Swing Inn do without Mamie and Ed Sunley? Miss Henry sits back of the pop counter very patiently and watches over us, and George Young is constantly yelling over the P. A. for someone to come to the phone. It is open every night from four until five, Monday and Wednesday from seven until nine, and on Tuesday and Saturday from eight until eleven. It is there that we entertain our opponents after a game and get on good terms with them again after we beat them.

Without the Swing Inn, I don't see how anyone would ever get a date for Sunday. A lot of fellows and gals learn to dance there. That back, northeast corner gets the most business from the beginners. (It's darkest there.)

It is the cleanest and best place for a teen-ager to go. Drinking and smoking are absolutely out. There is very seldom any rough-house, but in case there is, Miss Henry takes care of it.

Heavens, I almost forgot Murnie, and yet how could I? Murnie Zeigler, who used to be a Swing Inner herself, now takes Miss Henry's place there after school.

During the tournaments it was closed on Friday and Saturday, and we danced in the gym to the music of Lloyd Fluke's Harmoniers.

The floor is always shining and why not? The "New Look" in longer skirts saves the janitors a lot of work.

The special programs that occur once in a great while are planned by the Swing Inn Board. It consists of students from H. H. S. and Catholic High. From H. H. S. there are Charlie Wilson, president; Stacy Haines, vice-president; Sally Lowey, Dolores Feltman, Barbara Alexander, Jack Wamsley, and Dick Gelzleichter. From H. C. there are Marianne Bolinger, secretary, Rex Wall, treasurer, Pat McNulty, and Pat Scheiber.

It has surely been a successful year for the Swing Inn and I know we all hope it will continue.

Athletics . . . colorful . . . nerve-racking . . . where character is built in the thud of body against body, the swish of the ball through the nets, the flash of spikes on the base-lines . . . that part of the school curricula at which scattered student interest unites . . . football and the crowds at Kriegbaum Field or basketball and the crowds at the Community Gym . . . athletics . . . that is the necessary ingredient to complete the picture of high school.

Football

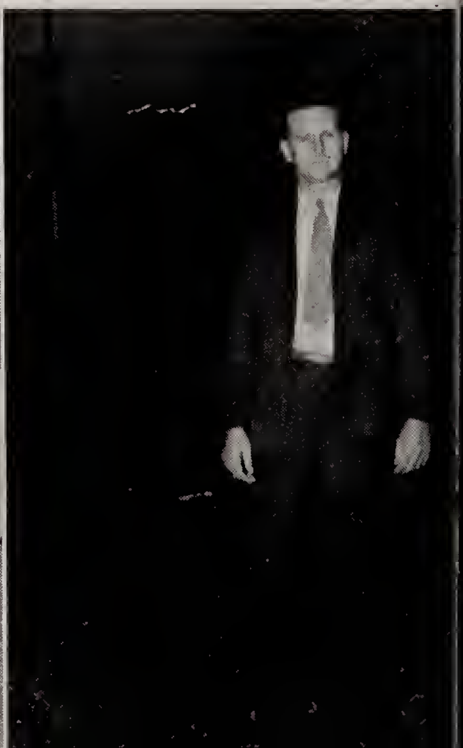
The Vikings, while turning in a record of eight defeats and one tie, toppled from the CIC Champs to the CIC cellar-dwellers. Although they had a strong forward wall and also a good backfield, they seemed to lose their power as they neared either goal line. Although they didn't win a game, they were a hard fighting, aggressive team that worked together at all times.

The only Viking who was able to secure a position on the CIC all conference team was Bob Swihart who had to be satisfied with a third team position.

So let's put the Viking Football Ship in drydock for repairs and modernizations, and hope for a better season next year.

Coach, Harry B. Williams

Assistant Coach, Oscar K. Naab



Ned Slater shifted from full back to center and played a very competent game at both positions.

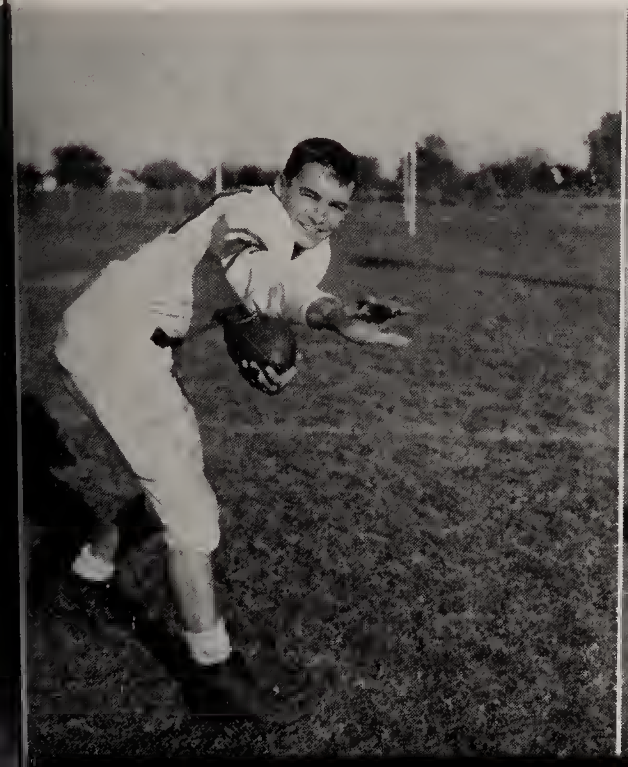
Jerry Hensel was very aggressive on both defense and offense. He held the full back position and was also one of the co-captains.

Keith Rouch turned out to be one of our most consistent linemen and many opponents found that he well earned his nickname, "Rock" when they tried to go through his right tackle position.

Paul Buzzard, although small, operated at the right half position and was one of the best ball carriers the Vikings had.

Stacy Haines was the all around man of the Vikings and played any position to help the Viking cause.

Jack Overly switching from center to full back was injured early in the season and only saw limited action for the rest of the year. "Budda" was the fatest man in the Viking band.



Charles Wilson was a good defensive man, and he added plenty of spirit and pep to the team. He played at the left half slot.

Bob Truitt played end for the Vikings, but he specialized in place kicking.

Even though this was his first year, Darl Caley played a very good game. His main hindrance was lack of experience and size. At his left half position, he improved constantly and proved a threat to any opponent.

Norman Cozad filled the quarter back slot this year and did the passing and punting for the Vikes.

Dick Davis did a very good job at his left guard position, and he made the other team know that the middle of the line was hard to break.

Bob Swihart did a very good job at his right guard position and succeeded in securing a position on the CIC third team. Many of the opponent backfield men were stopped before they were able to get started because of his skillful line work.

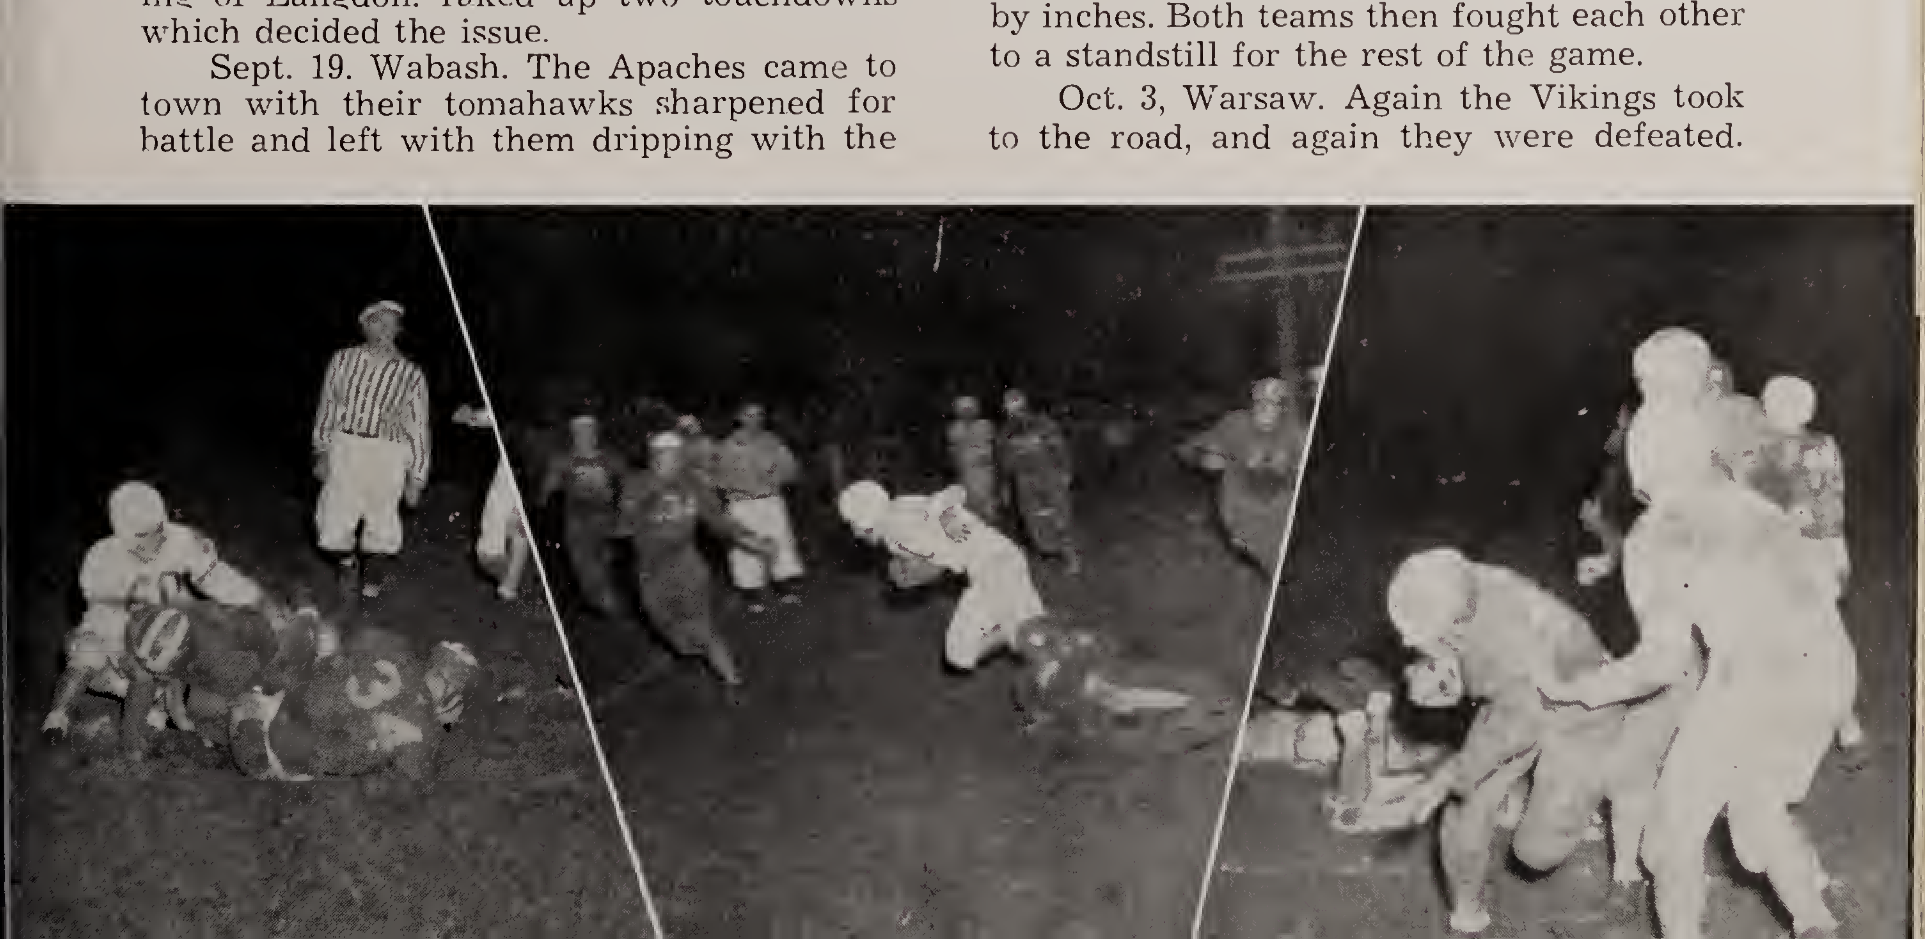
Sept. 5, Marion. The first Viking attempt for victory fell short when a more experienced, heavier team from Marion crushed them 34 to 12. The first half ended with the Giants holding a decided edge over the Norsemen with a 12-6 score as proof. In the second half, Marion broke loose, and it seemed that no combination could stop them, as they scored three more touchdowns while the Vikes could only add one to their total. Hensel turned in a very promising game by gaining constantly on the ground and scoring one touchdown.

Sept. 12, Hartford City. The Vikings, in their first home appearance, were handed their second defeat by a determined band of Airedales. The first half ended with neither team scoring, but the Vikings had found themselves with their backs to the wall several times. As the second half opened, the Norsemen launched an attack, spearheaded by a fifty yard run by Buzzard ending in a touchdown. The Airedales then seemed to catch fire and, behind the running and kicking of Langdon, raked up two touchdowns which decided the issue.

Sept. 19. Wabash. The Apaches came to town with their tomahawks sharpened for battle and left with them dripping with the blood of a victory. The Vikings, although outplaying Wabash much of the time, failed to score, while the Indians crossed the goal line three times. McDanials of Wabash returned the opening kick-off 82 yards for the first touchdown. Later in the first quarter, the Apaches scored again to increase their lead to 14 points. During the second and third quarters, both teams were very evenly matched; but again in the fourth quarter, Wabash started a drive which carried them over for their third score of the game.

Sept. 26, Ft. Wayne Central. Coach Williams' men battled an over-rated Central team to a 6 to 6 tie. The Tigers opened the game fast and in the first quarter scored their first and only touchdown of the game. After this first quarter outburst by the Tigers, the Vikings settled down and started to play a very competent game. Midway in the second quarter, Buzzard intercepted a Central pass and raced 26 yards for a touchdown. The kick for the extra point was wide by inches. Both teams then fought each other to a standstill for the rest of the game.

Oct. 3, Warsaw. Again the Vikings took to the road, and again they were defeated.



Williams' "Poor Little Boys" outgained the Warsaw Tigers during the first half, but couldn't come through at the end of their drives to make any tallies. Late in the first quarter, Warsaw recovered a Viking fumble and converted it into a touchdown. The second quarter was an exchange of punts with neither team being able to score. The Tigers opened up in the third quarter and turned two more Huntington fumbles into touchdowns. The game ended with Warsaw on the top half of a 20-0 score.

Oct. 10, New Castle. Well, it happened again. This time it was the Trojans of New Castle, who outscored the Vikings. During the first half, neither team was able to score, although the Vikings were able to move down to the 15 and 10 yard lines on two occasions before being stopped, the first time by the Trojans and the second by the half time gun. The third quarter saw both teams continue to battle each other to a standstill. In the opening minutes of the fourth quarter, a kick by Cozad was blocked by a teammate; and the Trojans took over in mid-field. Three first downs and a play later, Ellis, a fleet left-half, drove over for the winning touchdown. Later in the quarter, the Vikes booted away two scoring chances, and the game ended with New Castle starting a new drive for another touchdown.

Oct. 17, Elwood. The Vikings' ship set sail tonight, headed into battle, and returned home tattered and torn after another defeat. The Norsemen opened the game by marching 71 yards down the field for the first touchdown of the game; but in the second quarter, the Panthers slinked back, and Arnold scored for them on a 35 yard run. On the third play of the third quarter, Arnold again broke loose and dashed 55 yards for his second and winning touchdown of the game. The rest of the game was fought without either team making any dangerous threats.

Oct. 22, Plymouth. Tonight Plymouth scored their first victory over the Vikings in the history of their football rivalry. The Rockies scored three touchdowns in the first quarter before the Norsemen started to play ball. Plymouth added another touchdown in the second quarter before the Vikes finally were able to score. The first Huntington score was made by Shultz, who, with the aid of the rest of the team, drove 60 yards for the tally. During the third quarter, the Norsemen battled the Rockies to a standstill while aiding their own cause by scoring another touchdown. The Rockies again scored in the fourth quarter to bring the final count to 35 to 13.

Oct. 31, Peru. The Vikings lost their last game of the season to the Tigers by a 13-12 score. The Tigers started the scoring parade in the first quarter after they had driven the Vikes back to their one yard line twice. The conversion was good and turned out to be the winning point. In the opening minutes of the second quarter, Shultz received a pass from Cozad and raced 25 yards for the first Viking touchdown. Again in the closing minutes of the quarter, the Norsemen started a drive only to be stopped by the intermission. In the third quarter, it was again the Tigers' turn to score; so under the leadership of Wells, the Tigers marched 75 yards to their second and last touchdown of the evening. The Norsemen struck back in the fourth quarter, and under the ball handling of Buzzard and Hensel, they scored to make the final score read 13 for Peru and 12 for the Vikes. The Vikings, although defeated, outplayed and outgained the Tigers throughout the game.

"B" Team Football

With all positions open for the Varsity, the difference between the "B" and the "Varsity" was hard to distinguish. Many of the boys saw action in almost every one of the "Varsity" games. While doing this, they also won four of their own games and lost two. Next year's "Vikings" will be an almost veteran squad due to the amount of action that they have seen in games this year.

Bill Williams was the mentor of these boys this year, giving them some training for future assignments next year.

The way things have happened this year, I believe that next year will be an eventful one for Huntington High on the gridiron.

Freshmen Football

The apprentice seamen had rough sailing this season. The young "Vikings" had clear sailing in only one game, and that was with Bluffton. They scored only once in this game, on a quarterback sneak. However, this was enough to win the game. They lost six games, some of which were very close.

Oscar Naab took over the coaching duties of the freshmen team this year succeeding Dale Ware. Not many of the fans know it, but much time is spent in preparing these boys for their games. Since the boys have had no training for football in grade school they have to start from the very beginning. I am sure that some of these boys are future stars for Huntington High as they have shown what is termed "the old stuff." Almost all of them have tried to pattern after a former Vike.

Basketball

Vikings

Front Row: Ned Martin, Norman Cozad, Alfred Shultz, Tom Brumleve, Paul Buzzard.

Coach Williams' 1947-1948 basketball edition turned out to be a hard fighting team with plenty of pep and spirit but with many cold waves. They were unable to stretch any of their winning streaks to over three games until they won the Sectional Tourney. The Vikes were very good on their team work and many opponents were kept guessing as to where the ball would go next.

The Sea Rovers fell from the C. I. C. champions to the fifth place position during the 47-48 season. Although the Norsemen did not establish an outstanding record they are a team to be proud of because of their sportsmanship and teamwork.

Scyldings

Front Row: Dick Wilson, Pete Vardaman, Dean Stonebraker, Jerry Smith, Burdell Sell, Doug Poe.
Second Row: Dick Bradshaw, Allen Tabor, Doug Cochran, Don Petrucelle, Don Covey.
Back Row: Danny Kimmel, Paul Kahlenbeck, Coach Naab.

The Scyldings got off to a roaring start this season winning six of their first seven encounters. For the whole season they turned in a record of thirteen wins and suffered six defeats. They amassed a total of 448 points to 342 for their opponents. This record includes a tournament at Decatur in which the Scyldings lost in the final game. Other participants in the tourney were, Decatur, Bluffton, and Central Ft. Wayne. The percentage for the season was .678.

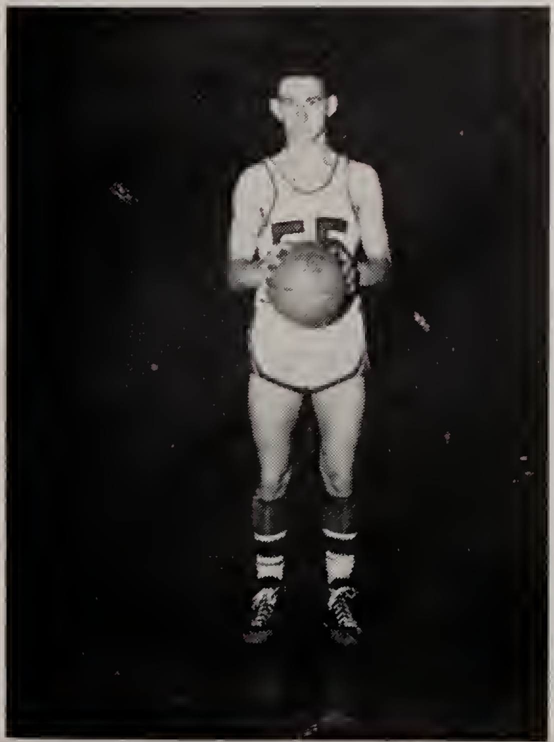
While the season was in its early stages several of the boys were sent to the Varsity. After the final cut thirteen men were left to finish the season. Three freshmen team members dressed with the Scylds for the next year.

The sharp-shooting eyes of several of the Scyldings in particular, along with skillful playing of the other team members enabled coach Oscar Nabb's boys to turn in a very successful season.

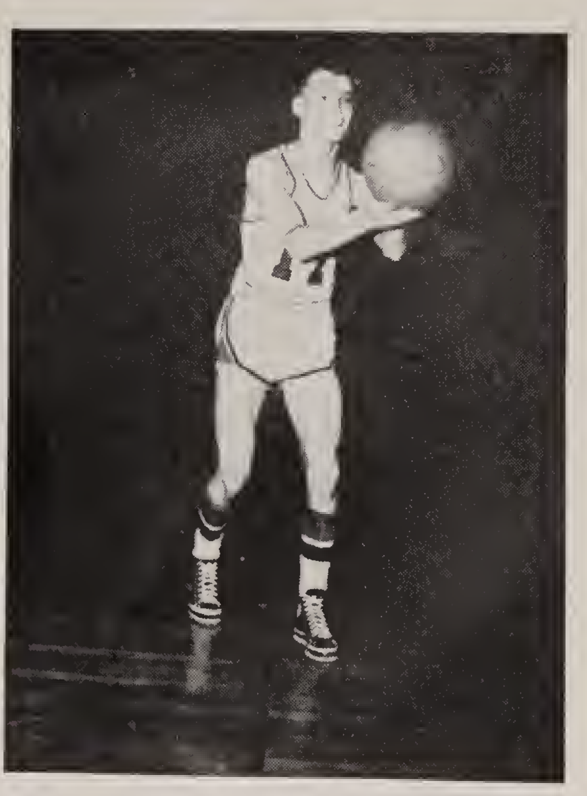
Senior Squad

Tom Brumleve added much pepper to the team and was always ready to help out when the time would come. He could thrill the crowd by his hot shooting sprees and always held the spectators in suspense until they found out whether he was hot or not.

Norman Cozad was the Viking defensive man and was outstanding in his brilliant defensive play during the season. He did not do much scoring, but he could be counted upon to get points when they were needed by the Vikes. Norm always drew the tough assignments and gained a position on the All-Sectional second team and the All-Regional first team.

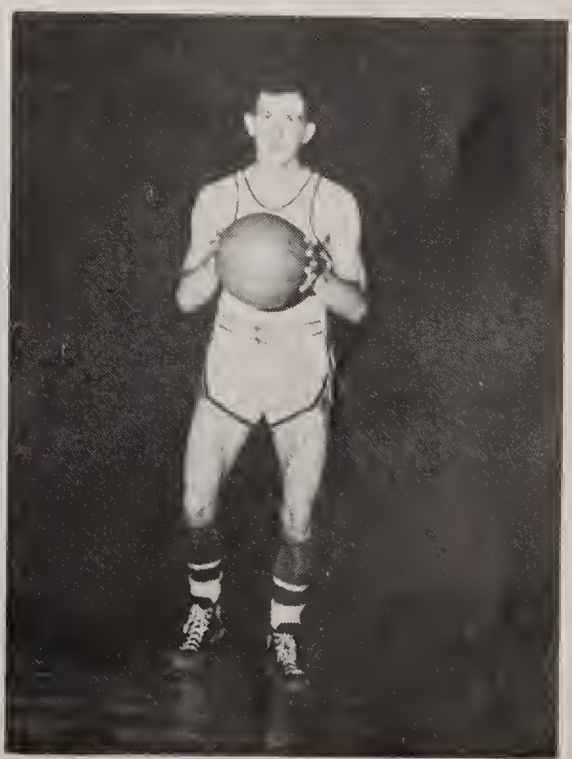


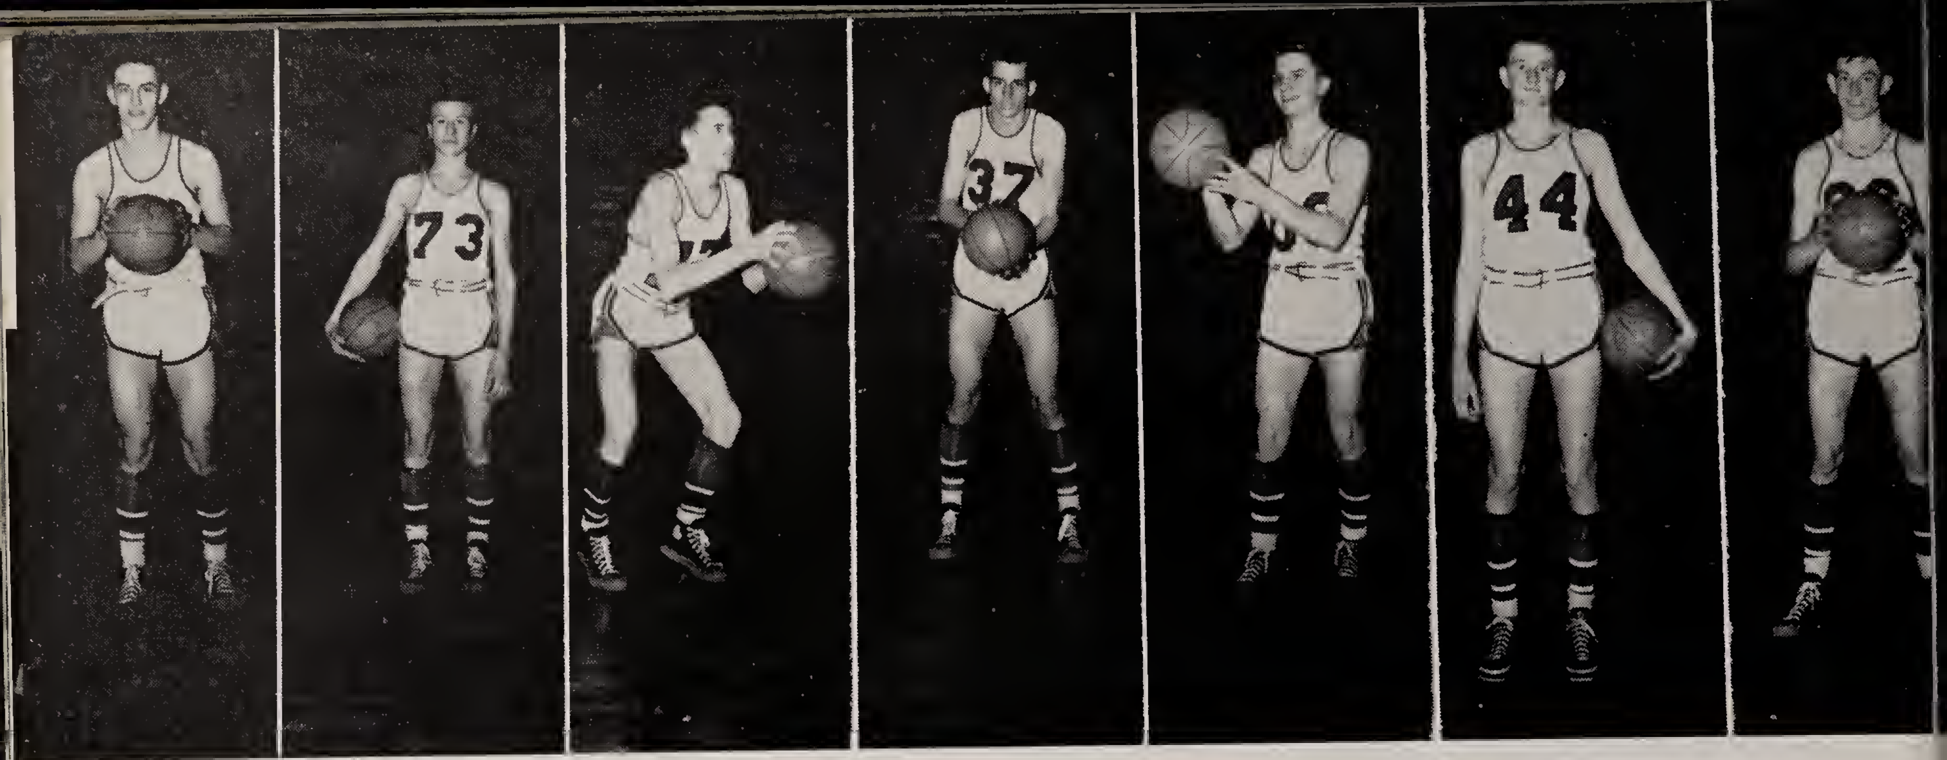
The "center" of the year's attraction was Bob Truitt. "Big Bob" added greatly to the Viking cause, through his exceptional work at his pivot position and his deceptive ball handling. "Gentleman Robert" gained the center position on the All-Sectional first team through his competent teamwork during the tournament.



The only returning seaman and captain of the Vikings was Paul Buzzard. Buzz's consistent scoring gave the Vikings many of their margins of victory. His desire to win and his leadership was an important factor in the success of the 1947-48 "Vikes". Through his good sportsmanship and excellent playing he earned a forward position on the All-Sectional first team.

Coming back after a year's absence, Ned Martin gave the Vikings the smoothness and polish that they needed to get over some of the humps of the season. He started out slowly but finally came into his stride and began to control the Vikes in their battles. Ned earned a first string position on the All-Sectional first team by his exceptional ball playing.





Basketball

On November 25 the Vikings made their 47-48 hardwood debut by grounding the Warren Lightning Five 55 to 37. Turning cold after their first victory, the Sea Rovers took to the road on November 28 and lost their first conference game by a decisive score of 48 to 38 to a determined tribe of Wabash Apaches. Returning home December 2, the Norsemen again gained entrance into the winning column by handing Warsaw a 39-32 dubbing. The Vikings continued their winning ways by defeating the Rochester Zebras 32-31 in a thriller on December 5. The Vikes were trailing 30-31 with a few seconds left in the game when Hiers connected on a set shot to win the game.

December 12, Peru, turning out to be too tough for the Norsemen, went home on the long end of a 42-38 score. The Vikes went to Bluffton December 16; after the smoke and dust had cleared, they had won 42-38. The Red and Black again lost a close, hard fought game; this time to Alexandria on December 19 by a 42-39 count. The Alexandria Zebras were later crowned the C. I. C. champs.

The Sea Rovers were invited to a four team tourney at Jasper during the Christmas vacation, and returned home after being defeated 60-43 by Jasper and 58-41 by New Albany.

January 2, the first game of the new year matched the Burris Owls with the Vikings, and the Vikes got revenge for the 1947 semi-finals by a 43-38 victory. January 6, the Yellow Jackets from Decatur swarmed over a hopeless band of Norsemen and handed them a stinging 29-21 defeat. By January 9 the Vikes recovered from their defeat and gained an overwhelm-

Freshman Squad

According to figures compiled in the coach's office the "Frosh" won eight of their fourteen games during the 1947-48 hardwood season. A slow start caused the Frosh to fail a higher mark. They lost four of their first five games. However, they ended up with a percentage of .572.

The Freshmen scored 386 points while their opponents were scoring 313 points. several team members proved good enough to dress for a few of the Scylding games at the end of the season. Coach Dale Stroud, launching his coaching career, got off to a very good start this season.

ing 42-34 victory over Hartford City. The Marion Giants handed the Sea Rovers a 56-33 dubbing on January 13, which turned out to be the worst of the season.

The highly rated South Side Archers were the guests of the Vikings on January 16 and found that the hosts had a surprise party scheduled for them, before they were able to eke out a 28-27 victory over the Norsemen. The Red and Black had an easy night on January 23 when they played Elwood, and they came back with a 54-32 victory under their belts. The second Fort Wayne team invaded the home of the Vikings on January 30 and found the going too rough; after a double overtime, the Central Tigers went home licking their wounds of a 43-42 defeat. Ned Martin led the Vikes to victory with his spectacular set shot in the second overtime. Tipton received a thorough drenching as the Vikings sailed over them on February 6 to an easy 55-29 victory. The Norsemen journeyed to East Chicago on February 10 only to be met by a house of red-hot Senators who maintained a 450 percent shooting average to override the Vikes by a 64-50 margin. On February 14 the Vikes again continued to roam, and again they continued their losing ways. This time it was the Richmond Red Devils who showed them a hot time and sent them home after a 51-45 defeat. The season was brought to a close on February 20 by a 46-30 trouncing by the Plymouth Pilgrims. The Vikes were within a few points of the Pilgrims at the end of the third quarter, but they fell apart in the fourth and scored only one point while the Pilgrims scored almost at will.

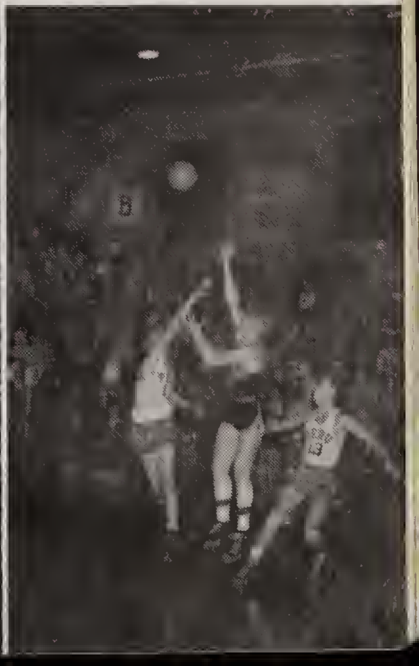
Tourneys

The Vikings went into the 1948 Sectional tournament as the defending champions and also as the favorites to win the tournament.

The Norsemen met a very determined, hard fighting team from Roanoke, but after a thorough battering the Stonewalls began to crumble and fall. The Vikes won the game by an easy 54 to 37 score. The second tough county team to be met and defeated by the Sea Rovers was the Township Bearcats who also proved to be no match for the hot Vikings. The score after the final gun read 51 to 35 in favor of Coach Williams' men. The Vikings had their easiest game of the tourney in the semi-finals when they matched baskets with a hopeless pack of Clear Creek Bulldogs who were driven away by a 60 to 21 defeat.

In the finals, the Catholic Ramblers were hopelessly subdued by the Vikings. The Vikes ran up their second sixteen point win of the tournament by dehorning the Rams by a 43 to 27 count.

The Vikings were the host and defending Champions of the Regional Tourney, but they lost their title to a hot-shooting band of Gorillas from Hartford Center who tore the cold Vikings apart and ran away on the long end of a very lopsided 51 to 32 score. The Gorillas were later defeated by the Portland Panthers in the evening finals by a 51 to 38 margin.



H Club

Boys belonging to the H Club are those who have received major awards in football, basketball, or track.

The purpose of the club is to lead in clean sportsmanship, co-operation, and cleanliness. These boys are to set a good example for other students, and because of this may be very proud of themselves.

The officers for the 1947 H Club were: President, Paul Buzzard; Vice-President, Ned Slater; Secretary-Treasurer, Howard Smith; Sergeant-at-Arms, Keith Rouch; and Committee Chairman, Jerry Hiers.

First Row: Howard Smith, Ned Slater, Jack Overly, Bob Swihart, Keith Rouch.

Third Row: Tom Wirt, Ernest Passwater, Phil Gardner, Don Petrucelle, Jerry Hiers, Dick Hendricks, Harry Smith, George Gerringer, Dick Mann.

Fourth Row: Alfred Shultz, Jack Wamsley, Don Covey, Keith Biehl, Gene Woods, Dick Wilson, Pete Vardaman, Dean Stonebraker, Bob Carey.

Student Managers

Larry Borton, Howard Smith, Jerry Hensel, Paul Kahlenbeck

Yell Leaders

This year the students and faculty elected Susie Briggs, Nick Lambros, and Marilyn Fosselman as Viking yell leaders. They have introduced five new yells and revised two old ones.

For the first time, H. H. S. sent the Viking yell leaders to the State Yell Leader's Conference at Indiana University.

We have another group of yell leaders that definitely should not be forgotten. They were the ones who cheered the Scydes on to their numerous victories. The Scylding yell leaders were Carolyn Fryback, Jane Weyler, and Gloria Humphrey.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Front Row: Larry Miller, LeRoy Clements, George Gerringer, Don Morris, Bob Swihart, Gene Poe, Bill Snyder, Jack Morris, Bob Beach.

Second Row: Carl Sunberg, Gene Votaw, Roger Carey, Luke Peters, Eddie Foster, Mark Guhl, Bob Fettinger, George Gressley, Keith Hart, Willard Garretson.

Third Row: Bob Carter, Garnold Nevius, Teddy Bryan, Wilbur Burns, Harold Poling, Bob Shaneyfelt, Wallace Cotton, Phil Abbot, Leonard Brickley, Bob Stahl, Morris Brown.

Intramural

Intramural basketball this season consisted of two leagues. The National League, made up of juniors and seniors, including four teams, and the American League, made up of freshmen and sophomores, consisting of four teams the first semester, and six teams the second semester. The season's action began on November 24, and ended on February 19.

The Yanks took top honors in the American League for the first semester winning six out of nine games. The Browns captured the crown for the second semester throwing the season championship into a playoff series which the Browns won, two out of three.

In the National League the Cards won the first round by winning five of nine games, while the Pirates won the second round capturing five of nine games. This put these two teams in a playoff series which was won by the Pirates by a margin of two out of three games.

This season's games were in charge of Dale Stroud who says that the games were low scoring and that the boys put in a slow season.

Medals were awarded to the winning teams in their respective leagues as a token of their achievement. Medals were also awarded to Bob Carey, Bob Swihart, Keith Rouch, and Roger Carey for their outstanding refereeing of the games this season.

Track

The outlook for track was very bright as the thinly clads whipped into shape for their ten meet schedule. Some of the brighest spots were filled by Overly in the 100 and 220 yard dashes; Howard Smith in the 440 and half mile; Jerry Hiers the half mile and mile runs; Slater in the 220 and 440 yard dashes; and Hendricks in the high jump and pole vault events. Williams also had a good half mile and mile relay team.

Baseball

After several years of absence, baseball again was added to the sports activities of the Vikings. Coach Williams' call for players was quickly answered with Bob Carey taking his place behind the plate, Buzzard and Hiers at first base, and Bob Bond, Dean Stonebreaker, Larry Borton filling in the rest of the infield positions. Jerry Hensel, Alfred Shultz, and James Jung received the nod for the outfield positions. Hendricks, Woods, Wiles and Bauger are doing the work on the mound.

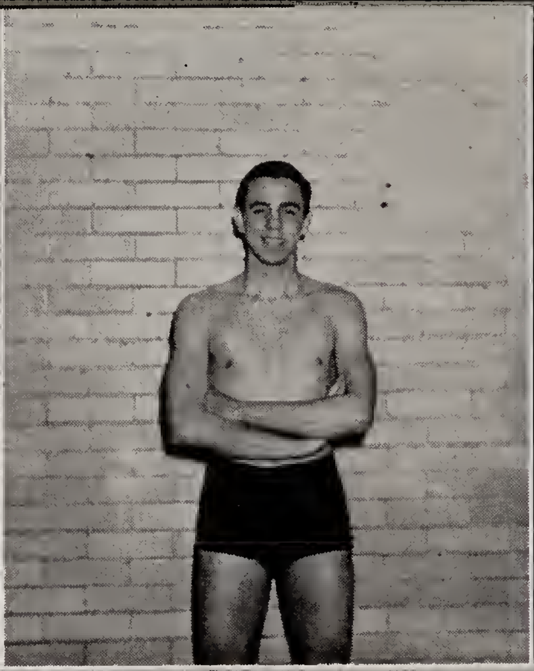
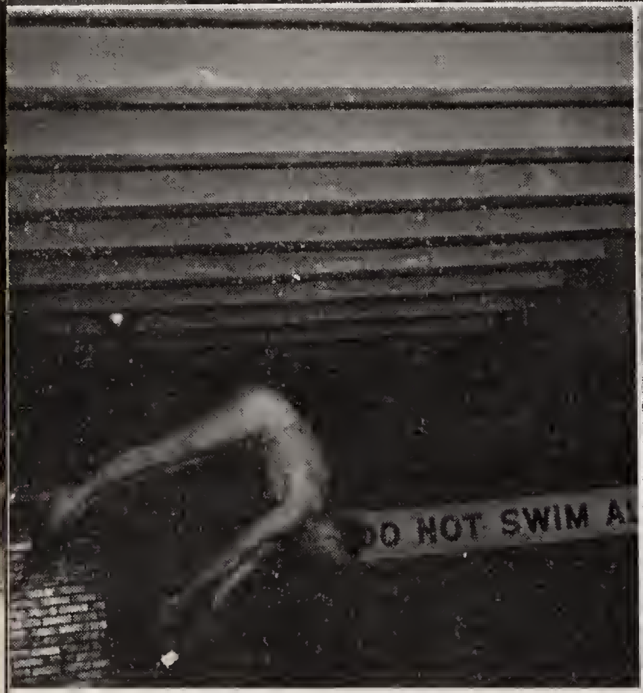
Golf

The 1948 golf team teed off on a six game schedule with Marion on April 12. The teams that they met were Marion, Peru, Huntington Catholic in exchange meets. The team was composed of Norman Cozad, Bob Rowe, Bill Florent, Keith Rouch, Bill Hurdle, John Cozad and Dick Frede. On May 11 the golfsters traveled to Peru to play in the C. I. C. golf sectional.





Swimming

The junior and senior swimming teams competed in 20 dual meets and lost 5, scoring 852 points to their opponents' 579.

The junior team placed third in the state championships at Purdue University and Jimmy Richardson set a new state record in the 50 yard backstroke: time, 32.7 seconds.

The senior team entered the state championships at Terre Haute bent on settling a score with Indianapolis. They defeated Huntington by ¼ of a point for the state championship last year at Fort Wayne.

The outstanding high school boy on the senior team this year was Jack Wamsley. He and his teammate, Ken Pilkenton, have turned in the top times in the state thus far. Other high school boys who have been consistent point winners are Bob Griffith, Bill Lauterbach, Bill Jones, Bob Booker, Ed Ehler, Jack Jones, Jim Rusler, Maurice Karriger, Max Stahl and Harry James.

For the first time Huntington was host to the National Y. M. C. A. Swimming and Diving Championships on April 23 and 24.

COACH GLEN HUMMER

G. A. A.

OFFICERS AND SPONSOR

Front Row: Barbara Winkler, Miss Ruth Luther, Carolyn Knoll.

Wonder women—that's what we are. Of course, the boys wouldn't think so, but we are. Two volleyball tournaments were held with our girls doing their best to take high honors. Twelve Huntington girls tried for the National Scholastic Archery Team, with Donna Kramer, Donna Johnston, Jo Alice Bowman and Carolyn Knoll making the highest scores.

The G. A. A. (Girl's Athletic Association) is one of the best to be found. It has 52 active members, and I do mean active. Barbara Alexander is the capable president and Barbara Tower is vice-president. Barbara Winkler is secretary and Carolyn Knoll takes care of the money. Yes, we do have money in our treasury—the members see to that. They sold Everyday Greeting Cards and wrapping paper to add to the growing fund. To help secure world peace, they joined the Seeds for Friendship campaign to aid the needy European countries during the summer and coming winter.

A bus was sponsored by the G. A. A. for the Ice Revue at Indianapolis in November. Many of the girls went, and had barrels of fun.

A Mother and Daughter Banquet was held for the initiation of the new members on March 11. With the new members the organization will be bigger and better than ever.

Front Row: Jo Alice Bowman, Donna Kramer, Bonnie Swearer.
Second Row: Phyllis Lewis, LaDonna Prater, Jean Dougherty, Carolyn Briggs, Ellen Priddy, Barbara Alexander, Lenore Bloom, Anne Bippus, Lois Smith, Dorlis Brown.
Third Row: Patsy Medcalf, Patsy Rusk, Patti O'Donnel, Anne Stephan, Carol Whitted, Patty Meese, Janet Greider, Carolyn Hosler, Ellen Cotton, Marilyn Burman, Jackie Shipley, Treva Morris, Marilyn Frederick.
Fourth Row: Carolyn Knoll, Barbara Winkler, Carole Pfeifer, Rosie Ross, Pat Pontious, Bonnie Reed, Dorothy Brickley, Joan Morett, Donna Johnston, Jean Altman, Janie Weyler, Norma Hensel.

Diary

SEPTEMBER

Tuesday, September 2

Here we are for another long year! We enrolled today to make sure they save a place for us. There was a mad scramble for lockers and the "freshies" took what was left.

Wednesday, September 3

Books, books, and more books! It certainly looks like an awful waste of some one's hard earned money.

Thursday, September 4

After looking over the temporary enrollment cards that we filled out today, it looks like a long hard year for some people! We really got started early this year. Pictures were taken today and my hair was a mess!

Friday, September 5

Good game Vikes! We played a tough game there at Marion, but somehow the score didn't end up quite right. We 12—They 34.

Monday, September 8

It looks like another week of hot weather. Here's hoping for short periods. As it seems to be traditional on the 1st Monday, Senior Masque and Gavel got under way for the year.

Tuesday, September 9

Where on earth did some of these girls get those nightgowns they are wearing to school? It's the "New Look", I think.

Wednesday, September 10

We were assigned our auditorium seats. There seems to be a bit of controversy over the 3½ year graduates having to sit on the sides with us juniors. We're not really such bad company.

Thursday, September 11

Greenie Day! Big Sis, how could you! They were relieved with a picnic at Memorial Park after school. The senior class elected their class officers today. Neil Markle is the new president.

Friday, September 12

We played Hartford City. They won but "Buzzy" made a 54 yard run. We 6—They 12.

Monday, September 15

It's getting to be old stuff by now and the days are just wasting themselves away.

Tuesday, September 16

Lessons! Alright, so this is the 2nd week, I like to play around.

Wednesday, September 17

The first panel discussion after an educational movie was given today. It was a success and will be done again, I hear.

Thursday, September 18

Today the freshmen girls were taken into S. S. S., formally. It was really beautiful!

Friday, September 19

We played Wabash and they won. Please, editor, kind of small. Score? 6-12.

Monday, September 22

Even a fire drill would help, these classes are getting long.

Tuesday, September 23

Did you know today was the 1st day of Autumn? I didn't either, but it says so here on the calendar.

Wednesday, September 24

The second panel discussion was given after the movie today. It was even more of a success.

Thursday, September 25

Like to splash? The G. A. A. had a Splash Party and initiation for new members at a potluck at the "Y", tonight.

Friday, September 26

We played Ft. Wayne Central. Just like 2 years ago it was tied at 6 and 6. Our toughest game of the year. A good sign, I hope!

Monday, September 29

I think we were all made quite aware of the fact that this is Safety Week.

Tuesday, September 30

This is the 1st opportunity I've had to say that I certainly do like the bright colored scarves the girls are wearing nowadays.

OCTOBER

Wednesday, October 1

Another day, another dime! For someone, that is.

Thursday, October 2

Can't understand it! The clubs aren't organizing very early this year.

Friday, October 3

We played Warsaw there. I was right there on the front line (the cheering section, of course,) but it didn't help. We lost 0-20. First paid program.

Monday, October 6

Jerry Smith, the man who walks on crutches, dances very sharp at the "Y" but that leg just won't stand football practice.

Tuesday, October 7

I wonder why absolutely nothing ever happens on Tuesday. Oh well, tomorrow's coming.

Wednesday, October 8

We had a Junior Town Meeting this afternoon with Ft. Wayne Central as our guests. The discussion was on Racial and Religious Prejudices.

Thursday, October 9

We had a fire drill by radio today over WOWO. All schools in and around Ft. Wayne had one together. Grab your dance shoes girls, try outs for the Revue chorus tonight.

VIKES

YELL

Friday, October 10
We played New Castle. We lost. That's all! If your nose is that long the score was 6-0.

Monday, October 13
The football fellows had their steak fry tonight at Lagro. Even though they have been defeated, they have fought well and really deserve the celebration.

Tuesday, October 14
Some little freshman let it out today that Pete Zeigler was drawing a caricature of Joan Minton for the Modulus. I have always wondered why there are never any surprises when the Modulus comes out in May.

Wednesday, October 15
I'm too old to put a board in my trousers but I "gotta" do something. Report cards!

Thursday, October 16
Say, here's a blank space. What do you think of our principal's new secretary? Patience? Hain't never seen the like!

Friday, October 17
Another game gone. This one was at Elwood. We 6—They 12.

Monday, October 20
If the fellows think that they are going to get any place by kidding the girls about their long skirts, they are badly mistaken.

Tuesday, October 21
Another Tuesday, another blank! How strange! I never realized it before this.

Wednesday, October 22
Not another game lost? 'Tis true, I'm afraid. We 13—They 35. Vacation for a couple of days. How nice. Teachers' Convention.

Monday, October 27
What! Allen Young embarrassed by dirty jokes? HA!

Tuesday, October 28
The Senior Class has decided to buy the Hammond organ and the Junior Class has agreed to back them, if necessary.

Wednesday, October 20
We bought our season basketball tickets today. There will be reserved seats. Some one can use the candy sellers' seats.

Thursday, October 30
This evening was the Booster Club hamburger fry.

Friday, October 31
We ended our season at Peru the same way that we started it. And it was so close. 12-13. Better luck next year.

NOVEMBER

Monday, November 3
Kick! Shuffle! Stamp! Just once more girls. Uh-huh, dance practice.

Tuesday, November 4
Although we're not 21, the civics and history classes voted today in the local election. Democrat or Republican? I'll never tell!

Wednesday, November 5
Mrs. Minton and Mrs. Fling were at school today, I see.

Thursday, November 6
Our Masque and Gavel went to Ft. Wayne to tour the WOWO radio station. I thought we'd never get home. We waited 3 hours on a broken down bus.

Friday, November 7
How confusing—no basketball, no football. To the Swing Inn, I guess.

Monday, November 10
Say, Willie, how's the Revue shaping up? Oh, not talking, huh? Won't be long now!

Tuesday, November 11
Joe Morrow had a terrible time finding his pink slip in history class today (pass slip, that is).

Wednesday, November 12
Bodé Slater hit Dick Davis 6th period and knocked him out. Bodé lost his temper and Davis lost his senses. Bodé! What a blow!

Thursday, November 13
Thursday? Hurray only one more day and there's a weekend.

Friday, November 14
Can't believe that something isn't poppin' tonight but— 'tis true—'tis true.

Monday, November 17
The "Bugs and Body Club" organized today. Biology, I mean.

Tuesday, November 18
Miss Wilson in a frantic effort to calm her Senior Comp. class knocked over a flower vase showering her class.

Wednesday, November 19
How can they do this to us? Please someone, tear this page out.

Thursday, November 20
Well, I must admit, this was a very tiring uneventful week.

Friday, November 21
Tests! Tests! Tests! The end of the 2nd 6 weeks. Oh, my aching back.

Monday, November 24
The Junior candy sellers had a meeting to start off selling for the basketball games. Good luck kids.

Tuesday, November 25
We played Warren in our first basketball game of the season. We won 55 to 37.

Wednesday, November 26
Last day of school for this week, hurray! Don't eat too much. Remember ERP!

Friday, November 28
We played Wabash there. 48 to 38. They won. Period.

DECEMBER

Monday, December 1
Sally Lowey and Pete Zeigler are making a palm tree for the Revue. They say it conveys the thought at least.

Tuesday, December 2

Played Warsaw here. We won 39-32. We're coming back with a hard fight.

Wednesday, December 3

First full Revue practice, tonight. And of all things, Sally Lowey got a key stuck in the Art Room door and a joker, Mark Altman, broke off the end of the key.

Thursday, December 4

Say, that Revue is quite the stuff, I hear. It ought to be! These sleepy eyes ought to be producing something.

Friday, December 5

We beat Rochester there. 31-32. What a game!

Monday, December 8

This morning was the Modulus Revue matineé. An Eskimo speaker, Nutchuck, this afternoon. And opening night of the Revue tonight. Whew! What a day.

Tuesday, December 9

2nd night of the Revue. It should have been better but in some respects it wasn't.

Wednesday, December 10

Last night of the Revue. The cast gave Mr. Wilbern a Sheaffer pen and pencil set for his hard work and patience. Then naturally a party followed afterward on the stage. It was a great show to set off another year.

Thursday, December 11

'Twas the day after the Revue and all through the school, not a creature was stirring. You think I'm kidding!

Friday, December 12

Peru won the girls' volley ball tournament and also our basket ball game. My golly! Pigs!

Monday, December 15

We had a picture show "The Christmas Carol." I've seen it a thousand times, but each time I like it more.

Tuesday, December 16

In 4th period study hall Carolyn Hosler shoved the chair from under Barbara Carr. No bones broken but perhaps a few boards. A woman with a seeing eye dog gave a talk this afternoon. We played Bluffton. We won 32-48.

Wednesday, December 17

We had a Preview of the Choir Concert to be given tonight by our H. H. S. Choir. It's the 1st we've had anything of the kind. The juniors got their class rings today. A mistake was made and they used last year's design.

Thursday, December 18

Today was the grade school tourney. H. H. S. got out at 2:00. Our girls' volley ball team beat Township and Wabash in a tourney in the afternoon.

Friday, December 19

We played Alexandria. We got beat in the last minute of the game. 42-39. No more school until next year! ! Merry Christmas! Happy New Year, too! We get 2 weeks.

Monday, December 29

Jasper beat us 63-43 in the 4-way tourney there. It was a tough team to bump up against, but we gave 'em a jar.

Tuesday, December 30

Madison came out on top in the 4-way tourney at Jasper, but from all reports "good game, Vikes."

JANUARY

Friday, January 2

We beat Muncie Burris 43-38. Ah-ha, the coach must be building a team to take the finals, we're gaining all the time.

Monday, January 5

Here we be once more! What a delightful vacation. Engagements, marriages! I seem to be missing somewhere along the line.

Tuesday, January 6

We played Decatur. We lost 21-29. It was no fault of the 2nd team. When they were in, we were winning. Come on, Vikes, let's go.

Wednesday, January 7

We had a film on "How to Study." Oh yes, very interesting! Are you a "Gale"? There's a meeting tonight.

Thursday, January 3

The new organ came today that the senior class bought. Gee, is it beautiful. Someone was playing it nearly all day, and still we were supposed to study. It was like heaven on earth. Senior Play try-outs were tonight. Not being a senior, I can't relate much about it.

Friday, January 9

We played Hartford City. We won 42-34. You're in there, fellows.

Monday, January 12

The organ was officially presented today. Gloria Enos and Jean Altman played it representing the freshman and sophomore classes. Mr. Slater played popular music and Mr. Day played classical music. It was an hour program and 1st period was omitted.

Tuesday, January 13

We played Marion there. They won 56 to 33. They got hot, just when we went cold.

Wednesday, January 14

Tests, Smests, Man these tests. I can hardly believe that one semester is gone.

Thursday, January 15

Only half of today will be occupied with school. I doubt if even that much by the looks of the popcorn in the hall.

Friday, January 16

Played South Side, Ft. Wayne here. They won 28-27. It certainly was a moral victory for us. They were supposed to win by 38 points.

Monday, January 19

You say you beat up your books last year? Is that why the line is so long from the office. Blacklist huh? Say have you seen that new milk machine on 1st floor? And that's no joke "Freshie."

Tuesday, January 20

Booster Club initiation was tonight. Oh, my aching ———, and that raw liver. How could they?

Wednesday, January 21

Guidance this morning. Always glad for those. A few minutes of extra study time.

Thursday, January 22

We took temporary enrollment today. Up to this time, no one knew where anyone else was.

Friday, January 23

We played Elwood there. We won 51-32. Fellows you're lookin' good.

Monday, January 26

I say there ole girl! Home room was extremely quiet this morning. You guessed it! The P. A. is on the blink again.

Tuesday, January 27

All the new freshies had their pictures taken today. The teachers were really "joed" up right. They had their pix taken too.

Wednesday, January 28

We had a movie on "Social Dancing." That method may be correct but "that ain't the way I dood it."

Thursday, January 29

We finally had permanent enrollment today. Long time gettin' at it, I'd say.

Friday, January 30

We played Central, Ft. Wayne. We won in a double overtime 43-42. That's the way we like to see you play!

FEBRUARY

Monday, February 2

I heard that the ground hog saw his shadow today. Whether he did or didn't, I think we'll still have a long spell of cold weather.

Tuesday, February 3

The Sweetheart Dance will be late this year gals, so start lookin' around now for that dancing dream boat.

Wednesday, February 4

Step right up! Step right up! and have your picture taken, that is, if you're in Tri Hi-Y. I'll bet "Willy" gets dizzy standing on that big, big ladder, looking at those pretty faces.

Thursday, February 5

Senior Organ Concert was tonight in the H. H. S. auditorium. It was very beautiful. I've never heard an organ sound quite so beautiful.

Friday, February 6

We played Tipton. We won, naturally. The score was 55-29.

Monday, February 9

Junior candy sellers had a meeting to decide how the tickets should be bought for the sellers to the tournaments. Lee Lewton will surely get a free ticket. He has sold $118 so far this year.

Tuesday, February 10

We played East Chicago there. They won 64-50. Fourteen points isn't so bad against East Chicago.

Wednesday, February 11

The Gales had a potluck tonight. There were a lot more in that picture that was taken this morning than showed up at the meeting.

Thursday, February 12

Abe's birthday! "Pete" Zeigler and "Barb" Alexander are painting the heart on the trophy glass this year for the Sweetheart Dance.

Friday, February 13

Since this is Friday the 13th, the game with Richmond is tomorrow. As I look into the crystal ball the score will be (and was) 52-45.

Monday, February 16

Grab one, quick! It's only 4 days away. What? You mean you don't know? The Sweetheart Dance, of course.

Tuesday, February 17

Just like all the other Tuesdays—nothing to write about.

Wednesday, February 18

Grind away sausage maker. This was a usual day.

Thursday, February 19

Oh yes! Thursday. The basketball fellows will have a light practice tonight so they will be in good shape for our last game. Electric light, that is!

Friday, February 20

We played Plymouth. I think we should have won, but we ended up 15 points behind. I guess it happens to the best of teams.

Monday, February 23

The juniors and seniors had X-rays for T. B. taken today. They should have had a record. Deep breath, hold it! Click! That's all! Memories, memories—oh, sweet memories of the Sweetheart Dance.

Tuesday, February 24

I think the teachers are making up for Friday when we are to get out. And to top it off, six weeks tests are being given.

Wednesday, February 25

Well, the tournament has begun. Clear Creek and Albion won tonight. Woe be on the people who have tests tomorrow.

Thursday, February 26

Some tournament games tonight. The most important was H. H. S. vs. Roanoke. We won, of course.

Friday, February 27

Games all day today. H. H. S. played Township in the afternoon. We won. To do a little crystal ball gazing, Huntington beat

MARCH

Monday, March 1

The fellows' senior jackets came today. They are sending them back. I'll have to wait until later for mine. It would have been nice to have had them for the Regional but then, I guess they can wear 'em to the Semi-Finals! Hope, hope, hope!

Tuesday, March 2

What a dreary day. The absentee list surely verifies it, too. There were 72 absent this morning.

Wednesday, March 3

Twenty-four hours in this day and a full six periods. Well, that's enough, isn't it?

Thursday, March 4

Teachers' meeting tonight and we get out at 3:00. Hooray!

Friday, March 5

Pep session this morning. Grade school tournament. Everybody buy a ticket! If enough buy, we get out of school.

Monday, March 8

Since this diary went to press a week ago, you'll have to refer to the athletic division for the outcome of the Regional.

Tuesday, March 9

The Sunshine Society had a special program in the auditorium today. Nothing more exciting.

Wednesday, March 10

The "New Look" is getting longer, and longer every day. I swear the girls are shortening old formals.

Thursday, March 11

The active G. A. A. girls are getting all "joed" tonight for a Mother and Daughter Banquet at the "Y".

Friday, March 12

We might as well discard this day, absolutely no excitement. Hm, this is Friday, too!

Monday, March 15

Have you paid your income tax? Today's the day.

Tuesday, March 16

Those Seniors are really slaving away on their play. It ought to be good.

Wednesday, March 17

St. Pat's Day today. The Senior Tri Hi-Y had a Father and Daughter Banquet.

Thursday, March 18

Much ado about nothing today.

Friday, March 19

The same old crowd was in front of the bulletin board, our great big handsome basketball boys.

Monday, March 22

The Holy Week Services began this morning. The Sunshine and Hi-Y are doing it.

Tuesday, March 23

Holy Week Service this morning. State math tests were given today.

Wednesday, March 24

Holy Week Services are getting better and better every day. Other than that, it has been a usual day.

Thursday, March 25

School dismissed at 4:00 today.

Friday, March 26

Good Friday. No school! A lot of H. H. S. was at the services too!

Monday, March 29

The Senior Play Cast has been working too hard, I'm afraid. They are looking quite bad lately.

Tuesday, March 30

The Matineé of the Senior Play for the grades was today. It was at night for the public.

Wednesday, March 31

The Senior Play continued tonight. It is a great success.

APRIL

Thursday, April 1

Today Mr. Johnson turned flip-flops down the hall. April Fool's Day.

Friday, April 2

What a Friday with no game, no dance, no nothin'. How dull!

Monday, April 5

The Red Cross had a program in the auditorium today. Other than that a very unexciting day.

Tuesday, April 6

So what!

Wednesday, April 7

Track season started today with Columbia City here.

Thursday, April 8

School took up at 8:00 this morning.

Friday, April 9

No football, no basketball, no track, no nothing.

Monday, April 12

The Grade Schools put on the matineé for their Junior Varieties today. Peanut Week starts today. There was a dance in the gym given by the Mary White Guild.

Tuesday, April 13

The Gales had a swimming party at the "Y" for Peanut Week. Gee, my peanut is surely good to me.

Wednesday, April 14

The Needlecraft Committee had a Box Social at noon today. These things really are livening up school life.

Thursday, April 15

The Big and Little Sisters had a hamburger fry.

Friday, April 16

The S. S. S. had a tea to end a wonderful

Peanut Week.

Monday, April 19

The Band came back from their contest. They look happy, I wonder if they got 1st place.

Tuesday, April 20

Nothing to read about.

Wednesday, April 21

Guidance program today. That group singing is fun. But I'm a little tired of "Home on the Range", if you don't mind.

Thursday, April 22

Today was just as empty as old Mother Hubbard's cupboard.

Friday, April 23

Yours truly was absent. Sorry!

Monday, April 26

Say, you'd better get a thermometer NOW! I hear they're going up in a few months.

Tuesday, April 27

Boy, the Modulus Staff has really been working over time. I hope they appreciate our efforts.

Wednesday, April 28

A circle is a line of no depth running around a dot forever. Quote Mr. Naab.

Thursday, April 29

What's it to ya?

Friday, April 30

A few of the G. A. A. girls went to G. A. A. camp today for the weekend. Have fun.

MAY

Monday, May 3

Welcome back from your outing girls. We missed you. Say, tell me—oh, so many questions.

Tuesday, May 4

One of our main causes of dust is the janitors. Zeigler, put away that joke book, this is getting corny.

Wednesday, May 5

Guidance today. We need it. This Spring Fever is maddening.

Thursday, May 6

I'll bet the math students under Naab had a test today.

Friday, May 7

The H. H. S. choir had a concert in the auditorium tonight.

Monday, May 10

Masque and Gavel met tonight. Nothing any more exciting.

Tuesday, May 11

Very non-eventful.

Wednesday, May 12

A picture today for guidance. Mr. Day gave his weekly speech.

Thursday, May 13

All day long you can see the Seniors walking very slow and in time to their humming. I think the Baccalaureate practice is getting them down.

Friday, May 14

Today was Achievement Day. This was the day you found out just how successful you've been.

Monday, May 17

Baccalaureate was yesterday. Golly, seniors, we really will miss you.

Tuesday, May 18

The Seniors don't have to come to school this week. Gee, how quiet!

Wednesday, May 19

Last day of school. No more head work for another three months.

Thursday, May 20

The Junior and Senior Reception was last night. There need be no further discussion.

Friday, May 21

Commencement.
